Congress Opens '54 Term, Faces Stiff Political Battle

4 Charged in Attempt To Kill Reuther in '48

Police Arrest 2 in Detroit, Name Others

Crack Five-Year-Old Case; Similar Attack On Brother Unsolved

DETROIT (AP)—Charging four persons with assault with intent to kill and conspiracy, police today cracked open the five-year-old attempted assassination of CIO President Walter Reuther.

Prosecutor Gerald K. O'Brien and Detroit police commissioner Donald Leonard announced the charges and the arrest of two of the four.

"I am convinced the shooting of Walter Reuther in 1948 has been solved," O'Brien said.

Other Attempt Unsolved

He said a similar attempt on the life of Victor Reuther, brother of Walter, in 1949, is still a mystery.

Arrested were:

Carl Renda, 35, a key witness at the Kefauver Committee hearing in Detroit.

Clarence Jacobs, 48, of Tecumseh, Ont., who once jumped bond when accused of illegal entry into the United States.

Also named in the warrant was Peter Lombardo, 50, already serving sentence at the Terre Haute, Ind., federal penitentiary.

The fourth person named in warrants issued yesterday by Recorder's Judge John P. O'Hara, was Santo (Sam) Perrone, 56, father-in-law of Renda and a frequently questioned suspect accused by the Kefauver Committee of being "a gang-leading strike breaker and enemy of organized labor."

Believed in Area

Perrone is being sought by police. O'Brien said he was convinced Perrone was "in Detroit" within the last 24 hours.

O'Brien said he would ask federal authorities to transfer Lombardo to the federal penitentiary at nearby Milan, Mich., to be available for trial.

The warrant naming the four also had four "John Does" indicating further arrests in the assassination attempt against Reuther.

"This is a solution," O'Brien said, "but it may go further."

Jacobs, owner of a television shop in adjacent Windsor, Ont., was held in Windsor.

The attempted killing of Walter Reuther—and the attempt also on the life of his brother, Victor, a little more than a year later—defied years of investigation.

Each Shot at Home

Each of the two CIO unionists was shot at his home by a would-be assassin who fired a shotgun through the window.

Whether it was the same man on both occasions police could never say.

Reuther was shot April 20, 1948. Victor was shot May 24, 1949. Walter lost part of the use of an arm as a result. Victor was blinded in one eye.

At the time Walter blamed "Communists, management or a crackpot." Nothing came out of investigations to support any theory.

Agents Seek $31,700

Fourth Suspect Arrested In Missing Money Probe

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Secret Service today picked up a man described as a fourth suspect in the $160,000 New Year's Eve theft of new $20 bills from the Bureau of Engraving.

The service earlier had reported recovery of all but $31,700 of the money.

Charles Howard Nelson, 27, a Negro, was brought under custody to the field office of the Secret Service in the Treasury early today, the service said.

Questioned Immediately

There, Nelson was placed under questioning immediately. Other details were not immediately available.

The case broke open yesterday with the arrest of a bureau employe, his wife, and a soft-spoken little flagpole painter on a tip furnished—after all-night soul searching—by the father of the woman.

The three are Negroes. They were arrested one after the other in a day that began with a 5 a.m. phone call to Virginia state police by Irving Grant, father of Mrs. Mamie Landis, and ended with the recovery of $128,300 in three separate caches, of the loot apparently smuggled from the money printing plant in the tail of a suit jacket.

Those accused:

James Rufus Landis, 29, a $1.42-an-hour checker in the heavily guarded plant which makes the government's currency. The 6-foot-1 Landis was held in $50,000 bail on a currency theft charge.

Landis' pretty, 26-year-old wife Mamie, whom he married when she was 14, was held in $10,000 bail in spite of her firm denial of any knowledge of the theft.

Admits Complicity

William Giles, 27, the flagpole painter, who freely admitted driving with the Landises to the Fauquier County, Va., tenant cabin of Irving Grant in an effort to hide $95,000 of the "hot" currency.

Officials said Landis admitted stealing 8,000 crackling new $20 bills from their paper coverings and stuffing plain paper in their place. The dummy packages weren't discovered until the long New Year's weekend was over.

"I did it for the future of my family," said Giles, whose arraignment was scheduled today. "I can't give them all the things I want to give them."

Virginia state police said Mrs. Landis' father agreed—when one of his visitors produced a gun—to hide the money after his daughter and her companions dropped in on him Sunday night.

Wrestles With Conscience

Then, till dawn, he wrestled with his conscience and fear of the law. He told his wife what had happened. She had a heart attack. Finally Grant went to a telephone. He had, he told the police, "a big pile of Treasury money"—and was "scared to death."

Landis—who'd been one of five major suspects all along, the Secret Service said—was picked up at work. He resignedly led agents to a dark corner of the building where another $32,000 was found. His wife was arrested in their apartment, where agents said $1,300 was recovered. Then Giles was picked up.

Not All Spent

What became of the still missing $31,700?

Chief U. E. Baughman of the Secret Service said he didn't think it all had been spent—though the Landises lived high between New Year's Eve and the time of their arrest five days later, buying among other things a 1953 Oldsmobile.

"It is possible," Baughman told reporters, "that a fourth person took part in the theft and received a good share of the remaining money."

U.S. Enters Secret Negotiations Over Korea Peace Talks

PANMUNJOM (AP)—An American diplomat disclosed today that secret negotiations are going on to get the stalled preliminary Korean peace talks started again.

There was no indication whether the negotiations will be successful. Kenneth Young of the U.S. State Department said in an interview he and the Communists "are still feeling around."

Young said the hush-hush exploratory moves are being made through an intermediary, but he did not say who it is. It could be India, Switzerland or Sweden, each of which is represented here.

"From where I sit I can't say when it might be possible to resume the conference," Young said in an interview after the secret negotiations were announced in Washington.

Fresh Crisis Hits Italy as Pella Resigns

New Premier Sought; West Fears Reds Will Stage Political Coup

ROME (AP)—Pro-Western Italian political leaders, plunged into their second government crisis in six months, sought a premier today who could unite them in a twin battle against rising economic stress and Communist pressure.

Giuseppe Pella resigned as premier last night in an abrupt climax to an internal squabble in his governing Christian Democrat party over a vital issue in Italy—land reform. He had been premier for almost five months following the resignation of Alcide de Gasperi in July.

Fear Red Coup

His stepdown aroused new concern in the United States that the Communists would make gains in Italy due to the unstable political and economic situation. U.S. Ambassador Clare Boothe Luce, now on a home visit, already has given Secretary of State Dulles and other high American officials her personal report on this nation's problems.

President Luigi Einaudi was expected to start talks with party heads tomorrow as the first step in finding a new premier. Observers were reluctant to speculate on his ultimate choice, but they believed he would not make any decision before Monday.

Under a technical device, Einaudi "reserved decision" on the Pella resignation, pending appointment of a successor. This keeps Pella in office as the leader of a caretaker regime.

Internal Friction Arises

The immediate cause of the resignation was friction in the Christian Democrat party of Pella and De Gasperi over the naming of an agriculture minister in a reshuffled Cabinet.

Pella wanted Sen. Salvadore Aldisio, who is identified with the party's conservative wing. Left-wing members, fearing that a conservative might upset the land redistribution program, wanted to keep Rocco Salomone, another leftist member of the party, in the agricultural post.

Dies at Mansfield

MANSFIELD, Ohio (AP) — Frank Garver, known as "Pop" to inmates at Mansfield Reformatory where he was an official 43 years, died last night of a heart attack. He was 74 years old.

ROBBED BY MIDGET

CINCINNATI (AP)—A midget wielding a stonemason's hammer beat and robbed Robert Mowery, 50, of $39 last night, police reported.

Mowery told officers a man only four feet tall struck him several times with the hammer while he was on duty as a watchman on a construction project.

Bohlen Discusses Ike's Atomic Peace Plan With Molotov

MOSCOW (AP)—U.S. Ambassador Charles Bohlen conferred with Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov today for further discussions of President Eisenhower's proposals for the peaceful use of atomic energy.

It was the second time in a week that Bohlen and Molotov have conferred on this topic. Molotov requested today's meeting.

The U.S. Embassy would give no details of the talks.

At their first meeting the two discussed procedures on beginning international atomic talks which the Soviet has agreed to join.

Lausche Says Second Ohio Pike Inevitable

Cincinnati-Conneaut Link Is Vital to New Network, He Declares

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Gov. Frank J. Lausche says a turnpike joining Cincinnati and Conneaut is inevitable.

He reported yesterday that Pennsylvania now is constructing a toll road which will connect with the New York Thruway and cross a narrow strip of Pennsylvania near Erie, Pa., to reach Ohio at its northeast corner.

"That traffic will have to be channelized into the main arteries of Ohio, into the Northern (Ohio) Turnpike (now under construction) and down to Cincinnati," he said yesterday.

Lausche issued the prepared statement as a prelude to a special session of the Legislature beginning next Monday. The session was called by voters at the November election in aproving a 500-million-dollar bond issue to finance arterial highways throughout the state.

Legislators are to act on measures to get the building program under way.

The subject of a north-south turnpike has been under discussion for months. Until yesterday, nobody seemed sure there would be one. The State Controlling Board so far has refused to release $90,000

Laniel Strives To Last Until Berlin Meeting

PARIS (AP)—Premier Joseph Laniel faced the National Assembly today in an effort to pull his crumbling majority together for a vote of support in advance of the Big Four foreign ministers meeting in Berlin.

He was expected to win grudging approval—not for love of Laniel but to assure France of having a foreign minister present when the talks open on Jan. 25. Even some of Laniel's bitter enemies want France to speak up with some show of authority in Berlin.

Test Comes on Policy

The test comes on a statement of general policy by Laniel stressing domestic affairs, followed by a demand that debate be cut off. Laniel planned to tell the special Assembly session that if he is defeated or gets a weak majority on his demand to pigeonhole debate, he will resign. By this device he avoids a 24-hour postponement required when a formal confidence vote is posed.

Adjournments and explanations by the deputies of their views on postponing debate were expected to put off the vote until late tonight.

Normally the question of support for the government would not come up until after the installation of President-elect Rene Coty Jan. 16. Tradition requires the Cabinet to resign then. But Laniel, realizing he was on shaky ground, told outgoing President Vincent Auriol last week he wanted to quit at once. Auriol and Coty conferred and asked Laniel to remain in office. This gave Laniel the excuse to seek an immediate expression of confidence from the Assembly.

Risky Move

With the Berlin conference only three weeks away, most of the deputies realized it would be an extremely risky business to plunge France into a new crisis. It took 37 days to end the last one.

Many of the deputies are getting jittery as the time approaches for a showdown on ratification of the European Defense Community Treaty. Some proponents believe that delay is favoring those opposed to EDC. Others who oppose EDC believe they can defeat it now and are against further postponement.

Senator Blasts McCarthy for Spy 'Rehashes'

Ellender Will Oppose Increase in Funds for Any Senate Committee

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Ellender (D-La) said today he will invite Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis) to tell the Senate whether he uses "rehashed, plagiarized" information in his claimed exposure of Communists in government.

McCarthy, without specifically mentioning Ellender's announced plan to urge that the Senate cut McCarthy's investigating funds "down to size," said that if Democrats win in such a move "it will be the most Pyrrhic victory they ever won . . . a victory in which you destroy yourself."

Goes for Others Too

Informed of McCarthy's remarks, Ellender said, "I'm going to oppose not only him, but all" Senate committee chairmen who ask the Senate for increased funds. Ellender long has argued that no committee should get more than the $95,000 automatically given it at the start of each Congress session.

McCarthy's investigations subcommittee last year had a budget of $200,000 and he has said he will ask for an unspecified increase in 1954.

Yesterday he described as "a lie" published reports that he has agreed under urging from Eisenhower administration officials to taper off the subcommittee's Red hunting and place more emphasis on other fields of inquiry.

Blasts Reds Report

He said this of substantially similar versions of the story published by the New York Times and Herald Tribune, the Washington Post and Evening Star and the Baltimore Sun:

"Either the reporter was lying or he was lied to. I assume it is most likely the reporter was being lied to."

"I don't plan to shift the emphasis," he told a news conference. "When we find a Communist or an espionage agent in the government or in a defense installation, we will expose him. Period."

He added that no one in the administration had asked him to change course.

He said that if the Democrats block his request for a bigger budget, it would stamp them as "the party that wants to coverup and whitewash treason."

Ellender Comments

Ellender commented in an interview:

"McCarthy's object is to get what he wants—publicity. He's hungry for publicity. He would trample over the prerogatives of any other Senate committee to get it."

The Louisiana senator said he will invite McCarthy to tell the Senate of any of his investigations, including the now-recessed search for evidence of espionage at Ft. Monmouth, N. J., which was not

Lawmakers Must Act on Major Issues

Observers Sense Next Six Months To Decide Administration's Fate

WASHINGTON (AP)—Congress convened today for a momentous session which will write the record the Eisenhower administration must lay before the people next fall in the mid-term election.

Fresh from five months among the home folks, the legislators assembled in an atmosphere charged with politics.

There was a general sense that the accomplishments of the next six months will go far toward determining whether President Eisenhower will have his own Republican Party or the Democrats in control in the last two years of this term.

GOP Has Razor Edge

The GOP has command by only a razor edge in this make-or-break campaign year session. In the House, the count is 219 Republicans, 215 Democrats, 1 Independent. A year ago it was 221 Reublicans, 213 Democrats and 1 Independent. The Democrats picked up their two seats in special elections in New Jersey and Wisconsin.

In the Senate, the division is 47 Republicans, 48 Democrats and 1 Independent. Continued, nominal control hinges on the avowed willingness of the Independent, Sen. Morse of Oregon, to vote with the Republicans on Senate organization and on the fact Republican Vice President Nixon can break a tie in favor of the GOP.

Taft Loss Felt

A year ago, the division was 48 Republicans, 47 Democrats and 1 Independent. The death of Republican leader Taft of Ohio and appointment of a Democrat, Thomas A. Burke, as his successor effected the change.

The two houses, meeting at noon, scheduled only routine formalities, including the swearing in of six members to fill vacancies caused by deaths and resignations.

Honor Vinson

There was the possibility they would adjourn quickly out of respect to Chief Justice Fred M. Vinson, who died Sept. 8 when Congress was not in session.

The first session of this 83rd Congress adjourned the night of Aug. 3.

Tomorrow President Eisenhower goes before a joint session with the State of the Union message outlining his program for the year. Republican congressional leaders

Ohioans Watch As Burke Takes Oath of Office

WASHINGTON (AP) — With Sen. Bricker (R-Ohio) at his side, Thomas A. Burke, Democrat, was sworn in today as the late Sen. Robert A. Taft's successor in the Senate.

Vice President Nixon, presiding officer of the Senate, read the oath of office to Burke as the Senate reconvened, after Bricker had escorted the former Cleveland mayor to the rostrum.

Burke then took his seat in one corner of the Democratic side of the Senate.

"I realize," Burke told reporters, "that I am following in the footsteps of a great senator and a great American.

"I realize I face tremendous responsibilities. With God's help I will vote my honest convictions as a good American.

"This is no time for blind or stubborn or political partisanship. I do not intend to follow that path."

About 50 Ohio relatives and friends are coming to watch Burke sworn in by Vice President Nixon, shortly after the Senate opens its new session at noon.

"I think at least 90 per cent of those Ohioans coming are Republicans, too," Burke said, smiling.

"Thirty of them are members of the Cleveland Athletic Club, who are coming in a delegation for the ceremony."

Burke, former mayor of Cleveland, was an active member of the club.

Cold To Continue

Snowfall Creates Hazard On Streets and Highways

Two inches of snow fell in Marion and area yesterday afternoon and last night, making walking and driving hazardous .

It was the first measurable snow since Dec. 14 when three inches covered the ground.

WITH TEMPERATURES expected to reach only the lower and middle thirties today, more light snow was predicted. "Cloudy and considerable colder with snow flurries in the east and north portion" is the forecast for tonight with the mercury expected to drop to about 10. Thursday is expected to be cloudy and colder with some snow likely.

Temperatures registered below the freezing mark all day yesterday, the high being recorded at 30. The low for the night was 24. A year ago, a brief cold wave reached this section of the country, dropping the mercury to one above zero. The high a year ago was 19.

Cooler temperatures were prevalent in the upper Mississippi Valley today as northerly winds blew another batch of Arctic air from Canada, dropping temperatures below zero in North Dakota and Minnesota. The cold air headed southeastward into northern sections of Illinois and Indiana.

SNOW-COVERED streets harrassed motorists in the city and county last night and this morning as seven of 13 accidents reported by city police and state patrolmen from the Marion post were blamed partly on driving conditions.

Slippery streets and highways are still the rule in both the city and county, as early this morning snow was turned to slush by cars on the roads.

Corporal D. M. DeWalt of the highway patrol warned that while conditions were not extremely bad in the area now, they are expected to get worse tonight when freezing temperatures are forecast.

Two of the three accidents, and the lone injury reported by state patrolmen today were partly the result of slippery conditions. City police repirted 10 no-injury accidents today and the weather was blamed for five of the mishaps.

Ike, High Officials Take Communion

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower, Chief Justice Warren and a number of other high officials joined more than 50 members of Congress today at a special Holy Communion service. It was held to mark the beginning of the new session of Congress.

The service was in the National Presbyterian Church, of which the President is a member, under auspices of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America.

With bowed head, Eisenhower joined in prayers "for the nation, for the President, for the Congress, for all in authority."

Congressmen Set To Sound Off Friday

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON (AP) — "No spikka da English."

That was all Sen. Millikin of Colorado would tell newsmen when he and other Republican leaders in Congress came out of a White House conference with President Eisenhower.

It was a long speech when compared with the statements of some of the other congressional captains who had nothing more to say of their talk with Eisenhower than "Harummmph" and "Hmmm."

For three days several weeks ago the President had them in to discuss the program he starts unveiling for Congress tomorrow. They emerged like men who had taken vows of silence, which they probably did.

Yesterday Eisenhower sat down in his office with the Democratic leaders to talk over his defense and foreign programs, but when they trooped out their lips were pretty well buttoned too.

This might be astonishing, in the case of men who in other times and places could talk at the touch of a pencil on paper, except that (1) it isn't really new and (2) it won't last.

Right after taking office in 1953 Eisenhower asked his Republican leaders to drop in at the White House to confer with him on problems.

The most imortant of them, like the late Sen. Taft and House Speaker Martin, were willing to tell newsmen when they left the President the subject of their discussion but usually not what was said.

This time, it seems, the congressional visitors agreed to be even less talkative than that. Eisenhower's press secretary, James C. Hagerty, had a written statement for newsmen after each day's session.

Hagerty explained briefly what was talked about, like taxes or social security, but never a word on what who said to whom and what was said back in approval or disagreement.

But once Eisenhower reads his State of the Union message to Congress tomorrow all signals are off. The agreed-upon silence was to give him a chance to disclose his program publicly before it was discussed publicly.

And the session of Congress which opens today will certainly be remembered for the amount of discusion if not for the amount or quality of the legislation.

When Eisenhower asked the Democrats to see him it could be considered a friendly bid for bipartisanship, which is something Eisenhower will need before this session ends if he is to put over his program.

Since not all his own Republicans share all his ideas, it can be taken for granted some of them will be saying more than "Harummmph and "Hmmmm" once his message is delivered, and not in approval.

Any defection from the Republican ranks, in a Congress where the parties are so evenly divided, will make it all that more urgent for Eisenhower to have Democratic support on his major proposals.

This being an election year, it is hardly likely the Democrats at yesterday's session would make blanket promises of support or that Eisenhower would ask them to.

By the time this session is two months old all of Eisenhower's gestures of good will may have counted for nothing and been forgotten because of what may happen in Congress itself between now and then.

Commissioner Finds Question of Bond Tough

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—After a short hearing this week, U. S. Commissioner W. Madden Hill decided that a woman ought to be held on a charge of receiving goods stolen in interstate commerce.

But he was having a hard time deciding what would be a fair bond for her when he asked: "What is your husband doing?"

"Four years," she replied.

He was to leave here at noon for Huntsville, Ala., and Atlanta, Ga., to continue a nationwide inspection of Army installations.

SURROUNDED BY RUMORS. Announcement by Marilyn Monroe's studio that the shapely blonde actress had been suspended because she failed to show up for the start of a new picture touched off a new round of rumors. One rumor, a report that she was marrying former New York Yankee baseball star Joe DiMaggio, was blasted by her agent who said there were no wedding plans. She was last reported visiting DiMaggio in San Francisco but coud not be located there, or at any of the other spots which were checked. There was also the possibility she is holding out for more money in a new contract. Miss Monroe and DiMaggio are shown together in April, 1952.

YMCA To Open Family Events

Three-Hour Gathering Scheduled Saturday

Family night activities at the YMCA will begin Saturday night with a three-hour program. All members are invited to attend as a family group.

First item on the agenda will be a sack-lunch beginning at 6 p.m. Bags of food will be set up for entire families, including children under eight years of age.

Acting as master of ceremonies for the dinner and for a short discussion after will be Mrs. Ralph Carhart. Immediately after the dinner, a short devotion will be held, followed by group singing.

Then members of the families will be asked to give suggestions on what they, as members of families, would like to see incorporated in the family program.

At 7 p.m., the group will leave the cafeteria and participate in informal games. Game rooms will be open. In addition, family group games will be played in the youth center, and an informal period of recreation will be held in the gymnasiums.

A family swimming period will begin at 8 p.m. For those not wishing to join in the swim, a special gym period will be held.

Marvin Ludwig, youth director of the YMCA, said the program was scheduled to adjourn at 9 p.m.

Members wishing to take part in the swimming and gym programs should bring the proper clothing.

After Saturday, family night will be held each Tuesday and Saturday evening from 6:30 to 9 p.m. However, Ludwig said, Saturday night activities will be stressed more than those on Tuesdays because of the difficulties arising from having participation in the middle of the week.

Purpose of the program as outlined by Ludwig was to give families an opportunity to participate in recreational gatherings as a unit.

Are You Depressed?

It is as obvious as anything can be in politics that Democrats in Congress and in posts of party leadership are trying to talk up a depression.

The message they are conveying should be understood.

The Democrats, having presided over World War I and World War II and the war booms that went with them, have become identified with inflation.

The stock in trade is cheap money, deficit financing, high employment and the progressive destruction of savings.

It is casualty lists, ever-increasing preparation and production for war and vast foreign giveaway projects.

Actually, Democrats did not deliberately set out to identify themselves with these things. But that's the way it turned out historically.

It is the reason why they now are trying to talk up a depression. Since they have become known as the party of inflation, they must do everything possible to discredit the party which stands for protection of savings, balancing the national budget, stabilizing employment and rationalizing the rate of war production, war preparation and foreign aid.

The Democrats must make it appear that inflation, which robs money of value is good and that stabilization, which adds to the value of money, is bad.

They must try to make it appear that the choice is between inflation and deflation, between boom and depression. They do not concede it is possible to have a stabilized economy.

This is by all odds the most cynical position ever taken by a political party in the United States.

There was a story told during World War II about a thoughtless war worker who hoped audibly on a crowded bus that the slaughter would never end because it was causing so much overtime work in war plants.

Another passenger slapped the worker's blabbing mouth and said with a sob, "My son was killed in Normandy," then got off the bus.

Sugar-Bowl Financing

A new phrase, "the cash budget," keeps popping up in stories about federal finance. It refers to a conviction gaining popularity in Washington that the budget problem would be clearer if the figures which show what it is were designed to reveal more and conceal less.

This amounts to saying — to those of us unschooled in high finance — that the federal government should adopt the sugar-bowl method of handling money. This was the method whereby our mothers put income into the sugar bowl and took outgo out of the sugar bowl. What was left over, if anything, was surplus. What was not forthcoming was a shortage of means and meant less meat and more potatoes on the table until ends had been made to meet.

If the federal government adopted the same method, it would count as income everything it collected and as outgo everything it spent. Instead, it takes in vast sums from social security taxes, insurance premiums and retirement payments which are kept separately as trust funds.

These sums eventually must be paid out. But in a cash - budget system they'd be counted as income until they finally became outgo. Under such a system, incidentally, the federal budget could be balanced in 1954. This accounts for the frequency with which the idea is being mentioned by would-be budget balancers.

The Prodigals

And it came to pass that on or about 1954 A.D. a great many God-fearing, tax-paying, long-suffering patriots with no special axes to grind began to wonder about prodigal sons.

It dawned on them by slow degrees that the only people who seemed to be getting anywhere any more were prodigal sons and daughters. If a citizen kept his nose clean and didn't get embroiled in treason, minority hatreds, scandals, divorces, high crimes and misdemeanors, all he got for his pains was a clear conscience.

If he wanted special favors, a job with a ball club, quick transportation, a special police guard, or a chance to hit the creamed-chicken circuit for cash on the barrelhead, he had to be a reformed commie spy or a prisoner of war who wanted to be coaxed to come home.

It came to pass on or about 1954 A.D. that millions of patriots were fed to the teeth with this coddling prodigal sons. It had begun to look to them like an unusually loathsome form of racketeering on the part of the sons.

In the parable of the Prodigal Son, when the son who stayed home wondered why his errant brother was being fussed over, their father said, "You are always with me, and all what is mine is yours. It was fitting to make merry and be glad, for this your brother was dead, and is alive; he was lost, and is found."

The parable ended there.

If the same thing had happened again and again, the retort of the son who stayed home and knocked himself out feeding the fattening calves would have added a different ending to one of the most famous short stories ever written.

Impression Favorable

By David Lawrence

Eisenhower Should Improve Broadcast Technique

President Eisenhower is such a sincere and conscientious man that it is too bad his speech on television failed to gain for him the maximum effect which he deserved to get.

This is because his speechwriters evidently haven't learned the difference between words written for the eye and those prepared for the ear.

Franklin D. Roosevelt and his successor, Harry Truman, both had the benefit of experts in short-sentence technique, who used simple, striking words that the average man could readily grasp over the radio.

Mr. Eisenhower's address of Monday night was one of his poorest—a lost opportunity, especially since television time is so precious and so many millions are reached by it.

The total impression, of course, will be on the favorable side. The listener or observer probably caught, at least, the spirit of the President's promise to use governmental power to help the average man.

THAT'S A BIG pledge, of course, but is not unusual nowadays and politically it has become the customary thing to promise in this social-welfare age.

Many of the sentences of the address, however, were ponderous and clumsy. The President could have made a big hit with the same theme—if he had dealt with it in simple words.

Not long ago Professor Rudolph Flesch of New York University wrote some textbooks in which he rated spoken words on the basis of their appeal to persons of different educational levels. He showed how, without talking down to people, words can be used that can be understood by lots more persons. Here are some examples. The President said:

"The fantastic paradox of farm prices, on a toboggan slide, while living costs soared skyward, has ceased."

That's a bit difficult to grasp by ear. It would have been better to have said: "Farm prices have stopped falling. The cost of living is no longer going up."

ANOTHER POINT made by the President was worded this way:

"Tax reductions which go into effect this month have been made financially feasible by substantial reductions in expenditures."

It could have been phrased better for the ear this way:

"We are cutting down your taxes beginning this month. We couldn't have done this if we hadn't cut down government expenses."

The average man doesn't like to try to guess what "financially feasible" means. He wants to know if taxes are coming down and he understands that, if you first cut expenses, you can then cut taxes.

Another sentence in the speech claimed this point as an accomplishment:

"Strangling controls on our economy have been promptly removed."

This is a lot of big words. The President might have said: "We've gotten rid of wage controls and price controls and those controls over the supply of goods which were needed for the Korean war."

There were other points mentioned which also were abstract and vague. Thus, the average man will get little out of this sentence: "The proper working relationship between the executive and legislative branches of the federal government has been made effective." Maybe the political-science professors will understand it.

Even more confusing to listen to was this sentence in the President's address: "The cheapening by inflation of every dollar you earn, every savings account and insurance policy you own, and every pension payment you receive has been halted."

It would have sounded better thus: "We've stopped the inflation which has been cheapening every dollar you earn, every savings account, every insurance policy and every payment of pensions to our retired folks."

THERE WAS another sentence which left the listener a bit puzzled. The President listed as an "accomplishment" the following: "The fighting and the casualties in Korea mercifully have come to an end. We can therefore take more satisfaction in other blessings of our daily life."

Why the "other"? Certainly the Korean war was no blessing to anybody.

Finally, the President referred to "emergency immigration legislation" without telling his audience what it was. He then went on to the next point? "A strong and consistent policy has been developed toward gaining and retaining the initiative in foreign affairs."

It would be interesting to know what proportion of the television public knows what the President meant by the "initiative in foreign affairs."

It's just too bad that Eisenhower doesn't have a better speech writing staff — there are dozens of experts in the television companies who would gladly have translated his address into conversational television english. It was billed in advance as a "chat."

Don't Call a Doctor

By TRUMAN TWILL

When the lady of the house snaps and snarls at her loved ones, sets the table for more consumers than her brood contains and throws the leftovers into the garbage pail while putting the garbage into the refrigerator, do not call a doctor.

If it's the first two weeks in January, the old girl has an acute attack of holiday hangover.

All she needs is a dark, quiet corner until she clears her addled head of:

All recollections of pine - tree needles on the carpet, jolly old elves with little round bellies, the patter of little hooves on the rooftop and little feet on the stairs;

Christmas cookies sprinkled with red and green sand or something equally indigestible, whether or not somebody's Cousin Louise wears a size 44 in slips, how to wrap up an umbrella so it won't look like an umbrella;

Fat bows of red ribbon, holly wreaths, sticky finger prints left by grubby hands impregnated with goo from candy canes, lists of addresses for greeting cards;

Red candles, garlands of pine boughs, the crunch of Christmas ornaments being ground into oblivion by heavy-footed celebrants, fruit cake, turkey stuffing, tying bow ties for ham-handed males who must be trussed up in dinner jackets;

Squabbles arising over equitable divisions of loot, burned-out fuses, displaced furniture being kicked around until it is time to take down The Tree;

Loss of sleep, dishwater hands, party dresses which could not be zipped up without such a struggle this time there never can be another time, offspring home from school and staying up most all night so they can sleep all day;

A sense of impending financial disaster in the household budget, misplaced articles which never will be found until the Christmas clutter has been disposed of;

A month's worth of postponed tasks, including mending, cleaning, ironing, cleaning dust out of corners and digging popcorn out of the crevices of overstuffed furniture;

Pets spoiled by too much indulgence, a general deterioration of household discipline for the same reason, loss of sleep, neglect of current magazines, cartons in corners waiting for strings of Christmas tree lights and the other gingerbreaderie of Merry Christmas which must be stored away until next Christmas.

The burden of this gala occasion is picked up cheerfully by the lady of the house each December but by January it has her swaying on her flattened-out feet.

They hurt. Her head hurts. Her back hurts. She hurts all over. She has had it. All she wants now is to be let alone until Groundhog Day, at which time she will come out of her burrow and look around. If she doesn't see any Christmas trees or jolly old elves with little round bellies she will rejoing human society.

Impulse With a Bang

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP) — Phyllis Bird, 22, saw the shotgun in the front seat of the empty police scout-car, so she pulled the trigger "to find out what happens." The result: A hole in the car roof.

"Scared me to death," Miss Bird confessed to Lt. Tommy Wilson. She said she would not act on impulse again.

Dems Have Own Family Troubles

By Edward K. Nellor

Before tackling the President's new legislative program and Republican opponents, Senate Democrats have a family squabble that must be settled first.

This is evident in both political parties at the opening gong for the second half of the 83rd Congress.

The problem is one of party leadership for Senate Democrats. There is no scarcity of candidates, judging from the intra-party political jockeying now under way.

Nominal leadership for the party rests in the hands of Sen. Johnson, boss of the party's Senate policy committee.

You have to read the fine print, however, to discover this since the following party stalwarts have all been issuing statements in the past two weeks about what the party is going to do in this session of Congress:

Sen. Kefauver, Sen. Russell, Sen. Kerr, Sen. Gillette, Sen. Humphrey, Sen. Fulbright, and Johnson himself.

OVERSHADOWING all these eager orators and prospective party strong men is Adlai Stevenson, who has made his bid for continued party leadership, but who is in the unfortunate position of lacking the national platform provided by the U.S. Senate for his political henchmen.

Sen. Johnson, for instance, accepted with good grace what some of his colleagues considered an extremely late White House invitation to examine President Eisenhower's message on the State of he Union.

Sen. Kefauver, on the other hand, is extremely miffed, missing no opportunity to publicly needle the President and GOP senators on the President's disregard for Democratic feelings. Kefauver has, in fact, outdistanced all other party leadership candidates in the matter of staying before the public, having appeared almost daily on television and radio programs recently.

Sen. Russell, leader in spirit at least of conservative Southern senators, has already declared war for the party on defense matters, apparently without bothering to consult Sen. Johnson.

SEN KERR, to be different, has a personal political vendetta under way against Sen. Dirksen although other party senators are undecided about tackling individual Republicans and their voting records.

Sen. Gillette has acquired the so-called McCarthy political yoke by some fast stepping in announcing his plan to curb some of the Wisconsin senator's power. McCarthy has generally been considered the almost exclusive province of ex-presidential candidate Stevenson and his wing of the party.

Sen. Fulbright is going his separate way on foreign policy and Sen. Humphrey has been needling the GOP over economic problems.

The Senate Democratic policy committee staff is as much up in the air as anyone else over what the party line is going to be. It is weary from listening to so many voices, and has no idea what or who would have anything to say for the Democrats about the President's first message to congress.

Johnson, meanwhile, has been busy on the telephone lining up Democrat senators for a policy meeting. There is no evidence that he has lined up a sizable segment of his first team on any given policy of opposition to the GOP and the White House.

ONE THING is certain. If Republicans run into trouble over the administration's legislative program, Johnson's job will get tougher. If his colleagues start sniffing victory in the wind, as some are already doing, the competition for party leadership with the presidential nomination as the big prize will stiffen.

In the background is the Democratic National Committee, firmly attached to Stevenson's coattails, behaving as though it sees no evil, hears no evil and speaks no evil until it determines which political bronco is going to bust out of the corral ahead of the pack.

This time one year ago Democrats were content to sit tight and see what the Republicans had to offer before striking the political anvil. Now the firing is from all sides even before the President had time to speak his piece on specific legislative suggestions.

Cleanup Campaign

By MARK DANA

Last summer, the up-and-coming municipality of Burnsville, Miss., (Pop. 449) perhaps burned up by male rule, elected an all-feminine city council complete with a woman mayor, on their campaign promises to do a lot of literal housecleaning and perhaps some figurative cleaning-up as well.

It is pleasant to be informed by the women themselves that they have made good, and woe to the man (at least in Burnsville) who sees any cobwebs or corner dust.

In their report, did the councilwomen and mayoress talk about traffic, sewers, taxes upped or downed, zoning, paving or town utilities? What they portrayed to the voters were drainage ditches cleared of weeks, Main St. beautified, the city hall redecorated. How many masculine city fathers ever think of such simply temendous things: How many men enter and leave office, year after year, and never even think of what a literal broom or paintbrush will achieve: How many city halls over the land are just moaning for a woman with a scouring pail?

Reports from Washingtpn, Va., another enlightened municipality of about the same size, which also has an all-woman cast in its governing show, are just as cheering. To be sure, both are southern towns, drenched in southern chivalry toward the ladies, yet by the same token appreciative of the power of a woman which, says a female magazine, should never be underestimated.

It would be a mistake, of course, for men of any community to turn the keys of their city or even city hall, voluntarily, over to women office holders every few years just to get some scouring and paper hanging done. Women in office just start with the new look idea; quickly they move on to new deeds and have a commendable habit of staying once they get a Size 4-C foot in an office door.

Target Practice

By BILL VAUGHAN

Social observers lament that most of our troubles can be blamed on the fact that families don't plunge into enough activities as a unit. Well, the arrest of a Boston mother, father and son in an armored-car robbery could be a hopeful sign.

England explains its flying saucers as weather balloons, although it's hard to say why anybody in England should need to send up a balloon to tell that the weather is going to be terrible.

Marion County History Brevities

By EDNA S. DUTTON

A "pole raising" feud between the Democrats and Whigs during the 1844 campaign created a great deal of interest in the County. A hickory pole about 100 feet high erected by the Democrats bore the slogan "Polk, Dallas, Tod and Victory." The Whigs topped it with an ash pole 120 feet high. The Democracy, not to be outdone, set about raising a still higher pole but after getting it up about one third of the way it broke, to the joy of their opponents. A ship carpenter from Columbus was summoned by the Democrats, a pole cut on the farm of George Rupp in Pleasant Township and news spread that the tallest pole in the United States was to be raised in Marion. A few days later a large crowd gathered at the courthouse and the pole was erected. It was a victory for the Democrats in the county and nation but not in the state. The pole stood for some days after the election but was cut down before any damage could be done. There was great demand for a piece of it for relics. Samuel Saiter took a goodly portion of the best part of the stick to his cabinet shop and manufactured it into canes.

The Once Over

By H. I. Phillips

This Way, Kid

Welcome, 1954, And good luck. Baby, you'll need it. Don't look now but you're being followed by that man Trouble. He's been around so many years that he regards himself as part of the act. Got his gang with him, too. . . those birds named "Snafu," "Monkey Wrench," "Past Performances" and "Unprecedented Worries." They're no pals for a pink-faced cherub. This is no time for nakedness, kid. Climb into your woolies, bulletproof suit and iron helmet! When up against Modern Civilization you've got to dress for it.

What big eyes you have! The better to spot the pitfalls, ambuscades, trick plays and run-around routines. What big ears you have! The better to hear the double talk. What big teeth you have! The better to chew on the hard facts of present-day life. What a big head you have! . . . (No. that was the old fellow with the scythe who just gave up his seat to you.) Well, the horn-tooters, racket-makers and toast-drinkers are done. You're on your own, kid. Take some aspirin and try to forget Panmunjom, Soviet upside-down talk, Peiping denunciations, Harry Dexter White and the economic situation for a few minutes. The command is: "Forward!" (But have a motorcycle escort.) The slogan is: "Peace"! (Even if it kills you.)

—:—

Yes, baby, the way ahead is hard but think of Humpty Dumpty, the New York Giants, Steve Brodie and Little Eva when you fancy you have all the headaches. Your tasks are cut out for you, but remember David and the slingshot, the boy who stood on the burning deck and the youth who bore, mid snow and ice, a banner with the strange device "Excelsior" (or was it, "Boy, if I only had NATO now!)?

Think of Hercules. Compared to your agenda he was just a minor leaguer in the heavy-duty league. Pick your friends with care. Be good to Eisenhower, Churchill, all the premiers of France and all free world leaders. Let Ike break 90. Give a Russian delegate to U. N. the capacity to crack a smile occasionally. Unmask the phonies, trip up the bad actors and help the good guys. Stymie the atom bomb everywhere. See if you can't restore a little horse sense to the mind of human beings. Slap the world on a couch and psychoanalyze it. (It can't be as dumb as it seems.) Get the Bible back on the living-room table of America. Alert the churches and the congregations.

Yes, the tasks are innumerable, and we must remember that it's early January and very slippery in spots. But you're young. You've got zipperoo and a sense of dedication. What can you do for an encore? Shorten the commercials, improve lunchroom coffee, get some fresh lettuce into those drugstore salads, lessen labor troubles, get a little chicken into chicken soup, suspend those Marilyn Monroe jokes and don't let the army turn back those powdered eggs for civilian use.

Russia, it has been charged, is flooding Europe with a bogus Scotch whiskey. . . .One drink and you're vetoed! . . .An inventor has patented a hunting cap in which a red light flashes. . . .It also should carry an electric sign during the deer season "Close, But No Cigar." . . .A bright blue limousine reported to the police as a stolen car on June 2, remained in West 75th Street, New York, until two days after Christmas. . . .Parked in one spot by the curb it was unchecked, undetected and unbudged, even when neighbors phoned the precinct. . . .Oh well, the police, hearing it had been there only six months, assumed it was waiting for the green light. . . ."Dead Pigeon" a new Broadway comedy is not strictly for the birds, the critics say. . . .All the show world's notables turned out for the funeral of Lee Shubert the other afternoon, but we saw in fancy a great troupe of others, including the late Al Jolson, Gaby DeLys and tens of thousands of grownups who at one time or another had played in revival or amateur productions of "The Student Prince," most famous of the Shubert productions.

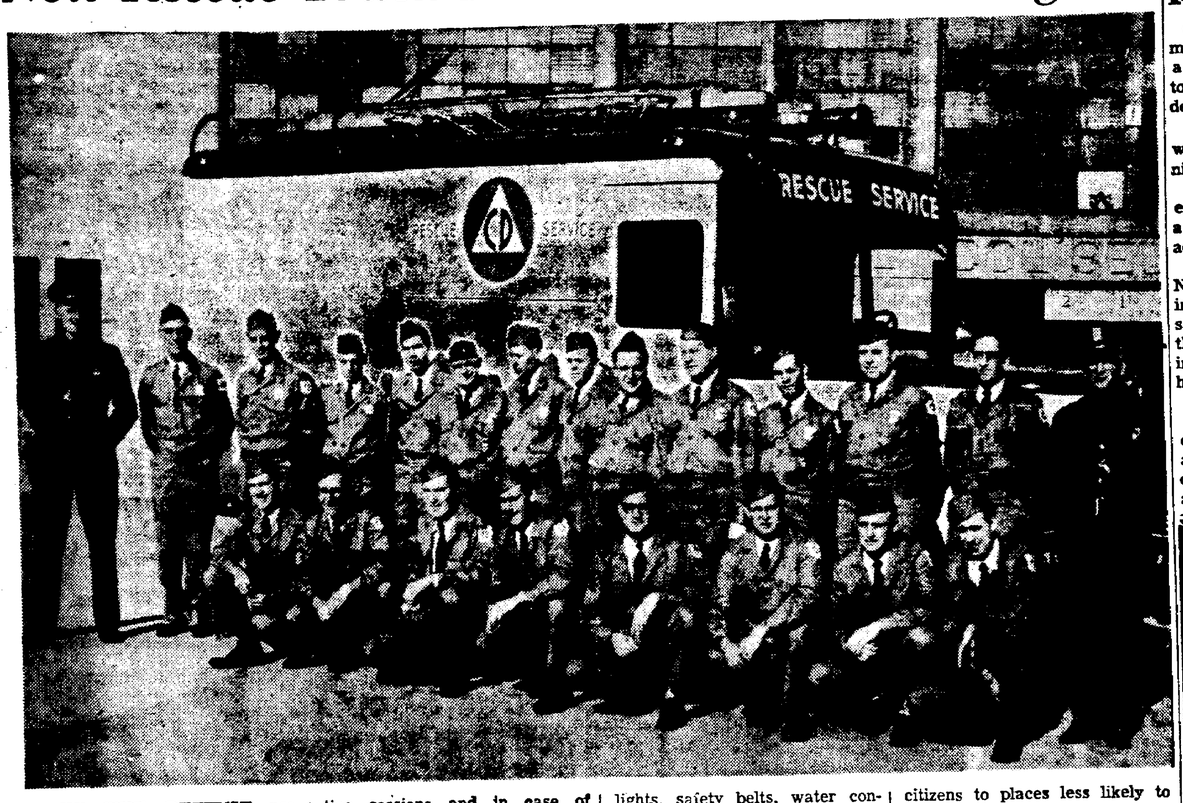
New Rescue Truck Boosts Civil Defense Program



THE CIVIL DEFENSE program in Marion was bolstered recently when the state assigned a rescue truck to the Marion unit. Here members of the auxiliary police and the rescue team are grouped around the new truck.

Kneeling in the front row are the members of the rescue unit which will man the truck in practice sessions and in case of emergency. Left to right are: William Luse, Wilbur Flach, Robert Veness, Ronald Powell, Norman Weston, George Drumm, Ralph E. Wilson, and Troy Evans.

Since its arrival, the truck has been used by the team in practice sessions, giving the men who would use it in emergency a chance to become familiar with its operation and equipment.

It is completely equipped to handle almost any type of rescue operation. It contains such equipment as ladders, saws, cutting torches, gas masks, an electrical generator, oxygen and gas masks, flood lights, warning lights, safety belts, water containers, plumbing and carpenter tools, and rescue clothes.

In case of attack on any areas in the state the rescue team would move in to help in any task which would be needed.

Other members of Marion's Civil Defense unit would be assigned to the job of carrying out evacuation orders, moving citizens to places less likely to be attacked.

Cost of the new truck, which is stored at the Short Ford storage garage at the Fairgrounds, was $11,300. It remains the property of the state, but the defense team has the right to use it in practice and any time a rescue task in the city is necessary.

'Sailor's' Sad Tale Fake, Police Find

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP) — Last month police were so moved by a "sailor's" tale of losing $2,200 to a pickpocket they assigned two detectives to the case.

Today, officers said, the "sailor" was actually an escaped California convict on the lam.

And the "hard-earned" sea-duty earnings he spoke of came from a Long Beach tavern burglar, they added.

A man identified as John Charles Ness, 26, was jailed for questioning in a burglary here. Officers said he admitted escaping from the Santa Rita rehabilitation center in California Nov. 19. He is being held for West Coast authorities.

A Scottish law passed in 1288 decreed that any man who rejected an offer of marriage from a girl during Leap Year could be fined as much as a pound.

Bigotry Deplorable By George Sokolsky

I have always assumed that those employed by the government of the United States were only required to be American citizens. I can find no reference in the Constitution insisting that any employee of the American government also be a Catholic, a Protestant or a Jew. Nor can I find that any application form for such employment includes a line stipulating religious affiliation. I was therefore shocked to read this paragraph in an article by Joseph C. Harsch, in "The Christian Science Monitor":

SOKOLSKY

"While the facts are not available in full, enough information has been gathered in Protestant circles to make it clear that the activities of Senator Joseph R. McCarthy (R - Wisc.) have had the incidental effect, whether accidental or intentional, of increasing the proportion of Roman Catholics to Protestants employed in the public service."

How would Harsch or anyone else know what the religion is of the more than 2,400,000 employees of the government of the United States?

Has he or anyone else sent a questionnaire to each and every man and woman who works for Uncle Sam inquiring as to religious affiliation? Surely there are no statistics on the subject nor can there be.

UNLESS HARSCH can produce statistical data, it must be accepted that his conclusion is reached on the basis of his private estimate.

Mr. Harsch further says:

"Inquiries by this reporter have failed to find a single Roman Catholic among officials dismissed from the State Department . . ."

This is an indirect insult to the Protestants. Some of those dismissed were subversives; some were homosexuals; some were blabber-mouths.

The secretary of state, John Foster Dulles, is an important Protestant churchman. Are we to believe that John Foster Dulles, whose father was a Protestant clergyma, and who, himself, headed the principal Protestant organization in this country, discriminates against Protestants? Or are we to say that no Catholic was a subversive, a homosexual or a blabber - mouth and that Dulles could find none to dismiss?

Both assumptions are equally untenable without more factual data than appears in Harsch's article. Surely so broad a statement requires some spelling out in detail, giving names and affiliations.

WE HAVE troubles enough in our country without anybody permitting private bigotry to disturb the national unity of our people. Perhaps the most attractive factor of American life is the freedom to be different, to hold views that are not standard, to worship God according to each man's beliefs and traditions.

Americans are of many faiths, including such as Buddhism, Confucianism, Bahaism, to say nothing about many forms of Christianity and Judaism.

In a world that is embittered by bigotry and hatred, it is a source of pride to an American that he can enjoy the privilege of government employment without any confession of religious faith. He is only required to uphold and maintain the Constitution of the United States.

The statement that Protestants see " . . . a possibility that the open Roman Catholic attack on Communism spearheaded by Senator McCarthy actually is directed as much against protestantism at home as it is against the Kremlin abroad; even that Roman Catholic fervor against Communism may turn out in the end to be primarily a vehicle for an assault on protestantism," is unfortunate.

IT IS AS unfortunate and as untruthful as saying that Jews are Communists and spies because a few scoundrels among us, such as Julius Rosenberg and Harry Dexter White, wandered from the morality of their ancestors.

For every indecent Jew of that sort, I can name hundreds who serve their country well. It would be a stupid thing to do, however, because were it not true that most Americans, of whatever faith, are loyal to this country, we should have been captured by the Kremlin. To generalize from the particular is always illogical.

In the face of the frightful war that is being waged against our country, why do we have to divide on such an issue as religious beliefs? When our sons are killed in war, they die as Americans, whatever their creed or faith, or complexion.

Only the Kremlin can benefit from bigotry in America; only America can lose by such divisions.

Being nether a Catholic nor a Protestant, I can be lovingly impartial in an appeal that they maintain a truce of God in the presence of Satan.

Rotarians Hear Vice President From Goodrich

Rollin D. Hager, vice president in charge of manufacturing, Industrial Products Division of the B. F. Goodrich Co. of Akron, was guest speaker at the Marion Rotary Club meeting Tuesday noon at Hotel Harding. His subject was "How the Rubber Industry Looks At the Future of Business."

Mr. Hager stated that "1953 was by far the best business year in the history of our nation," and added that "we think 1954 is going to be a good year but not quite as good as the year just completed."

The speaker used numerous statistical figures to support his conclusion.

A visiting Rotarian at the meeting was Paul E. Downend of Bucyrus. Guests of the club were Harold Wilson of Detroit, Mich., Mac Barrett of Avon, N.Y., Lt. (j.g.) Charles E. Axthelm, John Baxter and N. J. Schnelker, all of Marion.

Warren Man Sentenced On Draft Evasion Count

CLEVELAND (AP) — Albert G. Szakacs, 21, who described himself as a minister of the Jehovahs Witnesses sect, was sentenced to three years in prison yesterday on draft evasion charges.

News of Granges

PROGRESSIVE

A program of music and a skit, in charge of Miss Jean Click, Miss Jean Bibbee and John Freshour, was presented when Progressive Grange met Tuesday night in the Grange hall.

Group singing opened the program after which Miss Bibbee sang two numbers, "Lullaby" and "Freddie At the Fiddle," accompanied by Mrs. Cecil Davis. Also on the program were a trumpet solo, "Country Gardens," by Velma Clark, accompanied by Charles Toms, music supervisor at Pleasant School, a skit. "Some of Them Are and Some of Them Aren't," by Miss Click, George Click and John Freshour; selections by a triple trio from Pleasant School, composed of Carol Reidel, Bonnie Collins, Pat McNaughton, Donna Piatt, Marilyn Mack, Joan Mochel, Mary Blank, LaVonna Piatt and Phyllis Daugherty, directed and accompanied by Mr. Toms; and two saxophone duets, "Indian Love Call" and "Jealousy," by Sharon Leffler and Janet Moyer, also accompanied by Mr. Toms.

A contest, won by Mrs. Howard Click and Mrs. Stanley Hoopman, concluded the program, and refreshments were served by Mrs. Click and Mrs. Orla Barks.

In the business session, for which Howard Click, master, presided, an announcement was made of an officers meeting to be held Monday night, Jan. 11, at the Click home east of Marion. Russell Fett, a member, was reported ill in the hospital. At the next meeting, Jan. 19, the program will be in charge of the officers.

Reds Rolling By Victor Riesel

The American Communist party, spurred by specific orders from Comintern headquarters abroad, is working closely with the underworld and preparing to defend racketeers who, like themselves, have captured unions for use as a "cover" for their operations.

RIESEL

In the past few weeks, Communist agents from the West Coast have met with New York waterfront mobsters in West Side hotels and apartments. The political undercover agents have offered the underworld's spokesmen money and manpower to help them fight the AFL efforts to take over the East Coast docks.

At the same time the Comintern reps offered the mobsters full support against any efforts Capt. William Bradley, the new president of the old Longshoremen's Assn., might make to fulfill a public pledge to clean house.

These Communist waterfront emissaries have been acting under tough orders to smash any reform movement on the East Coast which might, in turn, spread to the Pacific Coast and drive pro-Communist waterfront unions from power there.

SHOULD THE AFL succeed on the Atlantic and then move in to crush sovieteering unions on the West Coast the entire Comintern strategy aimed at some day crippling our strategic Western shipping and our Northwest, Alaskan and Hawaiian defenses, would crumble.

As a result, the Communists are willing to deal with the Eastern mobs. Especially since the underworld is content with what it can loot from Atlantic ports without bothering about the western waterfront — which the syndicate has ignored for years.

This tie with the crime crowd has led the Daily Worker to attack federal and state investigations of the crooked labor welfare funds. These have been looted of some 35 million dollars in the past few years by top crime syndicate directors using several hundred union officials as their fronts.

AFL president George Meany now is considering a full-scale investigation of this gargantuan theft.

AS RECENTLY as December 23rd, the Daily Worker said:

"Gov. Dewey is taking another step to expand his now familiar pattern for state control of the operations of the life of unions. This time the mailed fist of the state is to enter via the many welfare - pension insurance funds of unions. The same procedure is to be used — the 'racket-busting' technique. . ."

This long over - due probe of crooked funds is smeared as "blackmailing unions or their leaders."

This hook-up with mob unions is part of the Communist party's frenzied effort to build some sort of labor base for a national move to infiltrate key industrial and political areas. Under the newest directive, the Communist party must launch "a variety of movements of struggle — now. . ." That's an actual quote from the dictum of the Comintern to the party here.

Under these infiltration orders, long in preparation, the party has already succeeded in camouflaging at least one powerful union as a non-Communist outfit.

THIS UNION, under orders to move in on the country's chemical and other strategic production centers, now is negotiating with some high AFL, CIO and United Mine Workers Union officials for even greater cover and power.

The labor leaders are not aware of the nature of the undercover apparatus now directing this union — and this must be written in this cryptic fashion because the naming of this multi-million dollar union would embarras some internationally famous American labor chiefs and unfairly give the impression that they are willingly dealing and meeting with the pro-Soviet apparatus.

These meetings have taken place in New York, Washington and the Midwest in recent weeks. The latest session was in New York.

Under other parts of the Comitern directive, Communist labor organizers plan to infiltrate the coal fields, steel areas and the 42 "soft labor" districts where there are heavy layoffs.

IN THESE AREAS the party hopes to dust off its old "unemployment council" tactics. This means organizing the resentful jobles, especially the 53,000 who have just been laid off around the land in the pre-holdiay season.

Then come the wild local and national unemployment demonstrations, to give the world the impression that the U.S. has hit such a depression that its people are rioting.

The directive specifically refers to exploiting the old "militancy" of the miners, who have hit hard times, inded.

Finally, the directive orders the party to infiltrate political groups in New York, California, Pennsylvania, Ohio and Michigan in an attempt to influence nominations and the November elections.

The comrades sure are rolling into the New Year with a bang.

Do It by Cards By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK (AP) — The average wife complains her husband doesn't talk enough at home. The average employer complains that same husband spends too much time exercising his vocal cords at the office.

HAL BOYLE

Both the wife and the boss are absolutely right. Naturally. But what can be done about it? How can the boss get this husband to gab less while he's on the job, and the wife make him give with a little more conversation after he comes home and takes off his shoes?

The problem as I see it is quite simple. The hired hands come to work full of overnight woes they are eager to pour into any ear. All day long they lope from desk to desk telling their troubles.

But when they return at eventide to their little castles and the good wife begs, "Tell me what's news at the office? — well, what can they reply? They don't know anything new, because they have been so busy bragging about their own problems they haven't had a chance to listen to the other fellow. Besides, they don't want to talk. Their jawbones are worn out already.

Now, here is a simple, easy way to solve this problem in a way to please everbody concerned—hired hand, boss, and wife. You do it with cards.

When the employes arrive for work, they are handed cards and are alloted 15 minutes in which to write down all the interesting things that have happened to them since the day before. The cards are filled out in quadruplicate. One goes to the boss, the others are put on "condition of staff" bulletin boards, located by the office water cooler and in the men's and ladies' rest rooms.

Here is a typical card:

Name of employe—"Joseph X. Blow Jr."

State of health—"Dreamed I was shipwrecked last night and woke up feeling seasick. Took sodium bicarb. No help. Any suggestions? May have to go home before noon if don't get better."

State of wife's health—"She was born tired."

And the children?—"My little feller sure said a cute thing last night. I was sitting there reading the paper, and all of a sudden he pointed at a picture and said, 'glub, glub, da-da.' and he isn't even three years old yet. How do you like that?"

Family finances—"Paid last installment on my car this week. Buying new car next week if can make old one hold out until then."

Other problems—"New neighbors moved in yesterday. Look pretty crummy to me, but too early yet to tell whether they'll be real problem."

Remarks — "Saw dogfight between collie and airedale on way to work this morning, but don't know how it came out as I was driving through red light at time and couldn't stop. First airedale I've seen in years. Had one as boy, though. Good dog, too."

Suggestions to improve office efficiency—"I still say it wouldn't break any hearts if they'd pass a little more money around in this place. Payday here is like standing in line at the poorhouse."

The virtue of this "staff information" card system is that it would save the time wasted on gossip in the ordinary office — roughly two thirds of the work day. Each time an employe went to the water cooler or the rest room he could read a few more cards.

He would be satisfied himself because he would know that by posting his card he could let everyone in the office know his woes, whereas, by the old vocal method he couldn't be sure of reaching more than half of them every day. And he would go home at night bursting with fresh gossip to tell his wife.

In fact, the only thing wrong with this system is that a wife might have a hard time shutting her husband up. But at least that would be a new problem for her—and love will always find a way to solve that one.

Key Senators Change Stand

Move To Hike Legal Debt Limit Gains New Support

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. George (D-Ga) said today he had let the administration know he would go along with "a reasonable increase" in the national debt limit if necessary.

The veteran senator, who attended yesterday's White House conference at which Democratic and Republican leaders were briefed on some aspects of the Eisenhower program, emphasized, however, that any boost in the present 275-billion-dollar debt limit still was distasteful to him.

Favors Hike

In a separate interview, Sen. Flanders (R-Vt) said he, too, "felt inclined" to vote for a hike in the ceiling of up to 10 billion dollars with the hope it would not have to be used.

Flanders said he felt the administration had proved in recent months it was striving hard to cut government spending.

These developments improved chances that the Senate will pass some sort of debt ceiling boost although some members, including Sen. Byrd (D-Va) remain adamant against it.

The issue is before the Senate Finance Committee, which bottled up the administration's request for a 15-billion-dollar increase at the close of the 1953 session after the House had passed it.

Wields Influence

George, former chairman of the finance group and now its senior Democratic member, wields considerable influence among his colleagues. Both he and Flanders voted in the committee against the increase last August.

Chairman Millikin (R-Colo) of the Finance Committee, who supported the bill, declined to say whether he had been asked to try to revive it early in the session. But high Treasury officials have left no doubt they still feel the increase is esesntial. The national debt now is within less than 500 million dollars of the ceiling.

Millikin also said in an interview he feels Congress should proceed very carefully before voting to lower aiose htcle tatis cxruy to lower the social security tax back to the level prevailing up to Jan. 1, as the administration has asked.

Up to 2 Per Cent

The tax before Jan. 1 was 1½ per cent of a worker's salary up to $3,600 a year, paid both by the employe and employer. It went up to 2 per cent.

Millikin said he personally favored the 1½ per cent rate. But he said he wanted to see "all the figures" on administration plans to broaden social security coverage before he decides whether the 2 per cent tax is needed.

George, on the other hand, said he favors freezing the tax at 1½ per cent for two more years. He said the present 19-billion-dollar trust fund is ample to assure social security payments for at least the next 10 years.

Sees Enough Votes

Flanders and Sen. Carlson (R-Kan), who also serves on the Finance Committee, said they favor the 1½ per cent rate, and Carlson said he was confident there were sufficient votes in the Senate to put the tax back down to the 1953 level.

However, such a move would have to originate in the House. There, some key Republicans including Chairman Daniel A. Reed (R-NY) of the Ways and Means Committee favor the 2 per cent rate. Rep. James C. Davis (D-Ga) announced he would offer a bill to restore the 1 per cent rate, with refunds retroactive to Jan.1.

Ellender said he believes most of McCarthy's information in the Ft. Monmouth inquiry came from Army intelligence, which had investigated it first. He said a lot of the rest came from the files of the House Un-American Actiyities Committee, adding:

"He (McCarthy) just dramatized it and sold it to the country."

McCarthy said his planned next step is to resume the Ft. Monmouth inquiry, probably in Washington, at an early date. He said that may be followed by a study of "unusual tax settlements" by the Internal Revenue Service.

The meeting is in charge of the health and safety committee of the club headed by Miss Margaret Messenger. for a preliminary survey of a route.

Assumes Action Due

Lausche said his highway modernization recommendations to the legislative special session "will assume that the Cincinnati-Conneaut turnpike will be built."

"The large volume of traffic moving diagonally across the state will make inevitable the building of that toll road," he asserted. He continued:

"Legislators who, a few months ago, looked with disfavor upon the proposal are conspicuously and in large numbers changing their views."

Two men on the controlling board—Rep. J. Frank McClure (R—Ashland) and Sen Tom Moorehead (R—Muskingum) — have blocked release of the survey money.

Lausche said he "has faith" McClure and Moorhead will "recognize the economic justification for the construction of that turnpike and will vote the money needed to make the preliminary study."

Gets Qualified Support

McClure and Moorehead reportedly are willing to go along with the other three members of the board if the route of the proposed north-south toll road is acceptable to Lake, Geauga and Ashtabula counties in Northeast Ohio. So far, they have insisted the release of the money should be up to the Legislature.

In a letter released with his statement on the north-south road, Lausche took issue with Sen. Fred W. Danner (R—Akron), who wants Ohio's new and controversial axle-mile tax on trucks repealed.

That tax is to help pay for construction of arterial highways. Danner wrote Lausche asking him to call a special session of the Legislature to cut taxes about 60 million dollars in a two - year period.

Lausche said Danner was "merely repeating the arguments of the trucking industry," and said he "regrettably" could not agree with Danner's views.

Ten City Auto Crashes Occur On Icy Streets

Five Believed Result Of Snow; Accidents All of Minor Nature

Five of 10 minor, no injury traffic accidents investigated in Marion yesterday by city police were blamed on slippery streets.

Worst of these occurred at Bellefontaine and Uncapher Aves. at 5:21 p.m. A car driven by Mrs. Sarah E. Morten of near Marion skidded into a tree in front of 898 Bellefontaine Ave. smashing in the front end of the car and tearing some bark off the tree. Mrs. Morten told police she was driving south on Uncapher Ave. and turning east on Bellefontaine Ave. when the front wheels skidded on the snow. The impact threw Mrs. Morten against the steering wheel with enough force to break it, but she told police she was uninjured.

A 17-year old youth was cited into Marion County Juvenile Court on a charge of driving without a driver's license following an accident in front of 396 W. Church St. at 9:31 p.m. yesterday. The accident occurred when Charles E. Partlow, 42, pf 484 Avondale Ave. stopped to discharge a passenger and the car driven by Norman Ratterman, of 330 S. High St. struck the rear of Partlow's car. There was slight damage to both cars, police said.

A three-car accident at E. Center and State Sts. at 2:23 p.m. resulted in damage to cars driven by Charles W. Frederick, 53, of near Marion, Robert L. Persinger, 34, of 433 Scranton Ave. and Lewis Shonk, 42, of 767 W. Center St. Frederick told police he was northbound on S. State St. and was waiting to make a left turn onto E. Center St. Persinger was southbound on N. State St. and was opposite Frederick's car when Shonk driving east on E. Center St. was unable to stop and struck right rear of Persinger's car, forcing it into the left front of his car, Frederick told police. Both Persinger's and Frederick's cars were badly damaged and there was only slight damage to the front of Shonk's car, police reported.

Slight damage was caused to a car parked in front of 198 W. Church St. owned by James R. Stahl of 547 S. Main St. when struck by a car driven by James E. Bryant, 33, of 232 E. Center St. at 3:51 p.m. yesterday. Bryant said his car skidded into the parked car when he tried to stop on the snowy street. His car was slightly damaged also.

In a similar accident at 4:18 p.m. yesterday a car parked in front of his residence owned by Francis McClain of 326 Davids St. was damaged when struck by a car driven by Lester F. Mahaffey, 31, of 126 Latourette St. Mahaffey told police his car skidded sideways into the parked car. His car was also damaged, police said.

A city police cruiser driven by Captain Marion B. Tatham of 878 Garfield St. was slightly damaged when it skidded into a truck driven by Lavere L. Nye, 49, of Findlay at an alley intersection at the rear of Carl's Auto Parts on N. Main St. at 4:14 p.m. yesterday. Nye was traveling north in one alley and Tatham west in the other, Tatham said. There was only slight damage to the truck.

There was no damage reported to a car driven by LeRoy P. Seiter, 47, of near Marion when it skidded into the rear of another unidentified car at W. Center St. and Olney Ave. at 3:35 p.m. Seiter reported the mishap at the police station and said he did not know the name of the other driver.

The remaining three accidents in the city were the usual run of fender-benders.

Cars driven by Margaret E. Pearson of 443 N. State St. and Harold W. Crissinger, 44, of 1007 Bennett St. were damaged when Mrs. Pearson's car struck the rear of the other car, at W. Center St. and Fies Ave. at 12:59 p.m. yesterday.

A collision at S. Main St. and an alley beside the Elite Apartments caused damage to cars driven by James. E. Wall, 28, of Columbus and Albert W. Augenstein of Waldo, police said.

Cars driven north on Davids St. by Mrs. Edna C. Snyder of 347 Lee St. and Donald A. White, 40, of near Marion were damaged in a mishap at Darius St. at 3:23 p.m., police reported.

One Injury in County

State patrolmen from the Marion post recorded the first accident in Marion County in 89 hours Tuesday afternoon after having a lack of mishaps since last Friday.

A total of three accidents with one injury were reported. Two of the three accidents were blamed partly on slippery road conditions. Three of the five motorists involved were arrested.

A truck driven by Robert O. Messenger of 191 Plymouth St. and a car driven by William K. Foster, 19, of Morral, collided on U. S. Route 23, one-tenth of a mile north of the intersection with Ohio Route 4.

State patrol reports show Foster tried to pass Messenger at the same time Messenger attempted to make a left turn onto a township road. Minor damage was done to the left front fender of the truck while moderate damage was reported to the right front fender and headlight of Foster's car.

Both motorists were issued citations to appear in Municipal Court today. Messenger was charged with failing to signal a left turn, while Foster was cited to answer a charge of failing to signal his intention of passing.

At 1 a.m. today, Rose B. Davis of Bucyrus reported an accident on post. She told patrolmen her car skidded off the left side of U. S. Route 23, two and one-half miles north of Marion.

The woman was taken to City Hospital in a Boyd ambulance. There she was treated for bruises of the mouth, back, and right side and released. Damage was heavy on the front end, and frame of her car.

At 2:10 a.m. today, the snow plow on the front end of a State Highway Department truck was damaged slightly when a car driven by Otis Abrams, 28, of near Marion skidded into the truck.

Driver of the truck was Howard E. Smith, 21, of near Marion. Patrol reports show the truck was clearing snow from the road on Route 23, four miles south of Marion when struck by the car.

Damage was done to the left corner of the snowplow, and moderate damage was reported on the left front fender, bumper, and grille, of Abrams' car. Abrams was issued a citation to appear in court Thursday to answer a charge of unsafe operation.

Dimes Containers Placed

CONTAINERS FOR contributions to the annual Marion County March of Dimes are being placed in business places throughout the city and county this week as Marion Countians join the nation in the battle against polio.

Taking over the job of distributing the containers again this year are the 12 local CIO Unions and Sheriff Glenn Obenour and members of his staff. Approximately 600 of the plastic test tubes are being distributed, 400 to business places in the city, 100 throughout the county and 100 at the Marion Engineer Depot. John House is chairman of the committee in charge of distribution and assisting is Ellis Oiler, president of the CIO Council.

The 1954 container is significant of the progress being made in the battle against infantile paralysis and carries the hope that medical science and research are on the threshold of finding a complete cure.

The 16th March of Dimes is just starting, the chairman, Jay H. Maish Jr., points out, and it may well be the most significant one ever held. A trial vaccine to be tested this year may mean a grim and expensive battle soon won, he added. "Victory seems close, but it can only be reached if we all dig down and give more than ever before."

State Highway Patrol Charges 4 With Speed

Four motorists were arrested by state patrolmen from the Marion post Tuesday. Two were arrested at the same time, the same place, and on the same charge. They also received the same disposition.

Dale Evans, 63, of Wayne, O., and Elden Glower, 25, of Fremont were both arrested on U. S. Route 23 at 9:30 a.m. Tuesday and charged with speeding. They were fined $15 and costs in Municipal Court.

J. S. Wilson, 28, of Great Falls, S. C. posted bond for his appearance before Mayor Harold Koehler of Upper Sandusky Friday. He was charged with speeding.

Russell R. Fenton, 45, of Columbus, also posted bond for appearance in Mayor Koehler's court Friday. He too was charged with speeding.

Water Completes Long Cycle, Returns to River

EPHRATA, Wash. (UP)—Water used in the Columbia Basin irrigation project has completed its full trip from the Columbia River at Grand Coulee Dam through the vast irrigation canal system and is now being returned to the river.

In 1948, the water was pumped 280 feet at Coulee Dam, then it flowed into a 27-mile-long equalizing reservoir from which it entered the canal system. After flowing through hundreds of miles of canals and laterals, it recently reached the downstream Pasco pumping unit by gravity for the first time to complete the full cycle and return to the river.

HELD IN MURDER

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Clinton Twp. Justice of the Peace Richard Reese yesterday held Paul Carmichael, 27, to the grand jury on a first degree murder charge without bond. Authorities say Carmichael admitted fatally stabbing another Columbus man, Louis Smart, 34, Sunday morning in an argument concerning Smart's former wife.

The National Georgraphic Society estimates that parchment diplomas awarded at commencements in the United States cost more than a million dollars annually.

Charges Filed By Sheriff in Death of Girl, 3

Charges of neglect against Mr and Mrs. John Robinson, parents of three-year-old Joyce Robinson who was killed in a fire which destroyed their home on Lindberg Ave. on Dec. 13 were filed in Juvenile Court Tuesday by the Marion County sheriff's office.

Arraignment has been set for 2 p.m. Thursday.

The charges claim that "on or about the 28th day of December, 1953, and during the preceding six months," Mr. and Mrs. Robinson "did aid, abet, induce, cause, encourage, and contribute to the neglect" of their seven children, ranging in age from nine to one years.

In addition to Joyce, the children are Caroline, 9; Nancy, 7; Patricia, 6; John, 5; Larry, 2; and Edward, 1.

The complaint further states that "because of the faults and habits" of the parents, the children "lacked proper parental care and were permitted to become neglected."

All seven children were alone in the house at the time the fire started when a kerosene cooking stove in the kitchen exploded around 9:30 p.m. on Dec. 13. When firemen arrived the fire was raging out of control through the four-room frame house.

Caroline and Nancy carried Larry and Edward out of the house, and led the remaining three children outdoors also, they told their parents. However, Joyce broke away from them and ran back into the burning house.

Mr. and Mrs. Robinson were visiting at the home of his parents on Waterloo St. at the time the fire started and had been gone about 20 minutes, they told firemen then.

Touring Units Sell Tickets for Airline

SAN FRANCISCO (UP)—Californians, long accustomed to drive-in facilities involving restaurants, movies, furniture stores, banks, funeral parlors and even churches, can now buy airline tickets from mobile units in the state's two largest metropolitan areas.

It all began last June 4 when United Airlines, which claims it originated the stewardess, opened a drive-in ticket office on the San Francisco Peninsula to the south.

Trans World Airlines got wind of the development, put its best young brains to work and the Pasadena sales manager, Tom Haurat, conceived the idea of outfitting two trucks as full-dress ticket offices on wheels. His plan to dispatch the mobile units along regular daily routes around Los Angeles and San Francisco was adopted immediately.

United's drive-in office at Redwood City, the first of its kind anywhere, allows motorists to whip into the driveway, honk the horn and buy a plane ticket without budging from the front seat.

The touring TWA units, two ¾-ton panel trucks, were put into service late in June, and Larry Murphy, a TWA official, said the results "have been more than satisfactory."

"We have one man on each unit," Murphy explained. "Every morning they start out on their route and follow a definte prearranged schedule.

"For exanple, the northern California unit makes stops at South San Francisco, San Mateo and San Carlos in the morning. The driver-agent takes an hour for lunch and spends the afternoon hitting Redwood City and Palo Alto."

Murphy said a similar schedule, encompassing Alhambra and three stops in metropolitan Los Angeles, takes care of roving customers in that area.

"But we also do a lot of extra rujnning around, try to catch the trade at special events such as boxing matches, football games, horse racing and conventions," Murphy said, "and we spend a lot of time near the big industrial centers where there are busy executives who fly as amatter of routine."

Murphy said the traveling agents have two-way radios similar to those used in police cars, ambulances and taxicabs, and are able to confirm reservations with TWA's main offices to any point on the line's system here and abroad.

WOMAN DIES IN CRASH

ZANESVILLE, Ohio (AP) — Mrs. Golda Dianee Lyons, 20, was killed yesterday in a two-car accident which injured her soldier husband and a young hitchhiker. Second Lt. Allan Stewart Lyons of New York City was in serious condition and Ayshard Pennington, 17, of Maysville, W. Va., was in fair condition at Bethesda Hospital. Lyons' car collided with a truck on U.S. 22, 10 miles south of Zanesville.

Incentive System Author Will Visit Plants in Area

James Finney Lincoln, Cleveland industrialist whose name is synonymous with incentive systems and their importance in management-labor relations, is spending today and Thursday in the Marion area at a series of meetings and plant visits.

This morning, he was in Galion to start a series of visits with factory officials with particular interest in how new developments and techniques in welding are proving out. Lincoln is president and general manager of the Lincoln Electric Co. in Cleveland, manufacturers of welding equipment.

His visits to industrial plants were to continue this afternoon and Wednesday morning, including trips to several Marion factories.

Tonight he is to meet with a group of men from the Marion area at Hotel Harding on the subject of welding techniques.

At noon Thursday, he will speak at the weekly luncheon of the Marion Kiwanis Club in Hotel Harding. A number of business and industrial executives from Marion and nearby communities are expected to be among the guests to hear his talk on incentive management and the Lincoln Incentive System which has been widely studied by industry.

In his extensive writings on the incentive system that bears his name, Lincoln has emphasized the benefits obtainable for the worker, the producer, the purchaser and for the owner or shareholder through teamwork.

Industrialist To Speak Here

Accompanying him in his visits will be R. P. Sharer of Columbus, district manager for the Lincoln Electric Co.

Lincoln will leave Marion Thursday afternoon for visits in Springfield.

Congress

predicted he will emphasize that his administration is taking the initiative in far-flung activities for national security.

The President will be speaking to a closely divided Congress, in which Democrats have one more senator than the Republicans and only four fewer House members than the GOP.

Democrats Closing Ranks

Behind that mere numerical division lies a growing Democratic unity heightened by GOP attacks and the approach of the November congressional elections. Such unity could spell trouble for some of the Eisenhower domestic proposals but seems unlikely to produce any major challenge to his foreign policies which may face more opposition within GOP ranks.

One Democratic senator, who didn't want to be quoted by name, said a White House briefing of congressional leaders yesterday produced no indication of any "fundamental change" in foreign policies.

Eisenhower was said to be preparing to pledge further strengthening of the free world's defenses, coupled with attempts to get Russia to agree to drop its aggressive tactics and to join in peaceful development of atomic energy.

General Outline

On the home front, the President apparently intends to deal tomorrow only in broad objectives, getting down to cases later in messages on specific subjects.

In one of these, due Monday, congressional sources said the President will recommend a farm program combining flexible price supports with a move to freeze part of existing farm surpluses in a national defense stockpile.

This can be expected to anger some Democratic and Republican supporters of rigid high-level supports which Congress has favored for the last five years.

Controversy is almost certain, too, over a mesage on Taft-Hartley labor relations act changes, scheduled the same day.

Without revealing the nature of the program, Chairman H. Alexander Smith (R-NJ) of the Senate Labor Committee said in an interview he expects the President's proposals to be "greeted with contentions by business organizations that he is trying to give everything to labor and by complaints from union leaders that the amendments still would leave it 'a slave labor law.'"

Seeks Democratic Aid

The President was said to have sought at yesterday's White House conference to get Democratic leaders, as well as the Republicans, behind the general objectives of his "new look" military program—aimed at increasing combat striking power through new weapons while reducing manpower.

He apparently failed to convince some Democrats, including Sen. Russell (D-Ga), that it would be wise to withdraw two divisions from Korea.

While Russell was publicly silent on the two-division issue, he said a review of world conditions by the President and Secretary of State Dulles was "good because it was carried on with the utmost candor and frankness."

Dulles was described as having sounded an optimistic note on the chances for world peace—a note echoed publicly by Sen. Griswold (R-Neb), just back from a visit to Europe and Asia.

Sees No Big War

Griswold, who did not attend the conference, said in an interview:

"I have come back with the feeling that there is not going to be a shooting war. There may be some shooting battles in small areas, but there is not going to be an all-out war between Russia and the Western world."

Lawmakers who attended the White House conferences the President has held this week said the administration is proceeding in its defense buildup on a theory that a major war is not imminent, but that the United States must be prepared to bear a heavy military burden for years to come.

The hope of GOP leaders to eliminate a prospective fight over a proposed constitutional amendment by Sen. Bricker (R-Ohio) to limit treaty-making powers was dimmed by their failure to reach any compromise agreement with Bricker at a lengthy White House session yesterday.

Steelworkers See Pattern in New Can Pact

NEW YORK (AP)—Settlement of a strike against the Continental Can Co. was viewed by some CIO United Steelworkers sources today as a possible pattern for ending a walkout against the American Can Co.

The two companies were struck Dec. 1.

Agreement in the strike of 14,500 workers at 36 Continental plants was announced yesterday. The union said it was based on a 15-cent-an-hour package increase, including a general wage raise of 8½ cents.

The union had asked a 21-cent-an-hour package increase at the start of the strike and Continental offered 10½ cents. Workers' average wage was $1.80 an hour in the United States, $1.50 in Canada.

Some union sources said they expected the Continental formula to set a pattern for agreement in the strike of 20,000 workers at 40 American Can plants James Robb, union district director, said he would ask American Can officials to meet with him Friday.

However, E. T. Klassen, head of the American Can negotiating committee, said in a statement his firm "has had several meetings with the union looking toward a settlement, but no agreement has been reached, and we are presently in no position to speculate as to when work will be resumed."

The Continental strike was settled as Florida citrus fruit canners were reporting they might suffer serious losses because of a shortage of cans.

Theater in Houston Hit By Fifth Straight Fire

HOUSTN, Tex. (AP)—Some 300 persons evacuated Loew's State Theater here yesterday when the movie house's fifth fire within recent weeks broke out.

The small blaze was extinguished by the building's sprinkler system before firemen arrived. Theater officials said a can of paint caught fire in a basement property room, producing a large amount of smoke.

Theater Manager Homer Callon, who previously said he believed the fires were the work of an arsonist, would say only that it was "possible someone set this one."

Pianists To Give Concert

THE SECOND NUMBER of the Marion Community Concert Association's 1953-54 program will be presented Monday evening in the auditorium of Harding High School. The concert was originally scheduled for Tuesday, Jan. 12.

Heard on the Monday night program will be Morley and Gearhart, duo-pianists.

The gifted young couple, Mr. and Mrs. Livingston Gearhart in private life, has won enthusiastic acclaim in the fields of both serious and popular music. The range of their activities includes engagements as soloists with symphony orchestras, choral concerts, regular radio and television appearance, arranging and composing, as well as their annual tours in their unique "Concerts with Commentary."

Miss Virginia Morley is a native of California. She began her studies with private teachers, then went on to win highest honors in both piano and composition at Mills College. After graduation she went to Paris to continue her studies at the Fontainebleau Conservatory.

Mr. Gearhart was born in Buffalo, N. Y. He won a scholarship to the Curtis Institute of Music in Philadelphia where he studied piano, oboe and composition. He also studied at Fontainebleau Conservatory.

In New York the Gearharts appeared in recital in Town Hall and in concerts sponsored by the League of Composers and the New York Philharmonic-Symphony League. They have been featured on Fred Waring's program and also have been featured entertainers in some of New York's smartest night spots.

In order to insure they have the best of instruments available for the presentations of their concerts, Morley and Gearhart transport their own pianos in a specially designed truck.

Dewey Blasts Profiteering by Public Officials

New Curbs Demanded In Annual Message To N.Y. Legislature

ALBANY, N. Y. (AP) — Gov. Thomas E. Dewey, whose administration has been struck by scandal, today demanded drastic legislation to prevent public officials and party officers from using their positions for personal gain.

The governor in his annual message opening the 1954 New York Legislature called also for a broad social program running into hundreds of millions of dollars and indicated he would balance the budget without increasing taxes.

In pressing for early impositions of curbs on greedy politicians, the governor insisted "the public is entitled to expect from its servants a set of standards far above the morals of the market place.

"The people," he said, expect not only "personal honesty but the absence of any reasonable suspicion of dishonesty or even impropriety." He declared it was an issue that transcended partisan politics.

Dewey also proposed:

1. A 350-million-dollar bond issue for expanding mental hospitals.

2. A huge bond issue for more low-rent public housing. The tentative figure is 265 million dollars.

3. A broadening of health services, with special stress on aid to children.

4. A code of fair play in state investigations in order to protect witnesses from being "smeared."

5. Full support of state development of hydro-electric power at Niagara Falls.

Dewey led off his 11,000-word message with his plea for action to raise the standards of ethics of state and local office-holders and political leaders.

Cobalt is an important alloy in making heat-resistant steel essential to jet engines, gas turbines, turbosuperchargers and gun barrel linings.

Finder, Owner Can't Agree on Lost Teeth

GALLUP, N. M. (AP)—A Navajo woman from Springstead trading Post, Ariz., lost her false teeth recently at a Gallup bus deot.

She advertised for the teeth on a Navajo language program, offering a reward.

Sure enough, a set was found.

Now the problem is that the finder refuses to ship the teeth to the loser until she sends him the reward.

The loser declines to send the reward until she tries out the teeth.

Maybe it can be settled by the time corn on the cob is again in season.

Man, 96, Outlives His Policy, Collects $1,500

SALT LAKE CITY (AP)—A 96-year-old Salt Lake City man yesterday became the beneficiary of his own life insurance policy.

The man, Sereno B. Tuttle, took out the policy in 1884. His premium payments ended in 1899. The Mutual Life Insurance Co. of New York said Tuttle had outlived the life span covered by mortality tables.

The insurance firm said he named himself as beneficiary of the $1,500 policy when he took it out 69 years ago.

Galion Council Attends First 1954 Meeting

Special to The Star

GALION — "You are now in the harness," Mayor Francis C Schalip told Galion's new city Council in its first session of the new year, Tuesday night. His words were reflected in the business and measures acted upon as a new administration got underway.

Council approved the mayor's bonds of $1,000 as treasurer of the city's investment fund, and $3,000, for his duties as mayor of the city. Roma Stall, Council's new president, called upon Rev. Herbert S. Garnes, Jr., pastor of First Lutheran Church, to open the meeting with prayer. Council committees were named by the new president during the early minutes of the meeting.

A unanimous vote of Council was given the clerk, J. Lawrence Maidens, to continue his duties for another two-year term. The ordinance fixing the salary of the new service director, Floyd Steffee, at $400 per month, and bond of $1,000 per year, effective Jan. 11, was passed as an emergency measure.

The rules also were suspended to pass an ordinance authorizing the mayor to enter into an agreement with the Crawford County commissioners and Polk Township trustees to set up a county-wide civil defense program.

First reading was given an ordinance making it unlawful for any person, firm, or corporation to leave outside any building or dwelling in a place accessible to children, any abandoned or discarded ice box, refrigerator, or any other container of any kind which has an air-tight door or snap-lock which may not be released for opening from the inside. The ordinance stipulates a fine not exceeding $500 for violation. It was recommended several weeks ago in action by Scarbrough Post of the American Legion.

Council President Stall named Charles Lauer and Waide Gerhart, council members, to the board of trustees of the Galion Firemen's Relief and Pension Board, and William Amick, council member, to serve with Councilman J. W. Caris, on the Police Relief and Pension Board.

Fire Destroys Home

Fire destroyed practically all the contents of the home of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Scarberry on the Prospect Pk, late Sunday afternoon while the family was absent.

The blaze was discovered by a passing motorist and the Pleasant Township volunteer fire department was summoned from a nearby farmhouse.

Mr. and Mrs. Scarberry and children, a boy aged 13, and girls eight and five years, are being cared for by residents of the community until they obtain living quarters. Mr. Scarberry operates a gas station and lunch stand on Route 4.

Slippery Roads Blamed In Automobile Accident

Slippery roads accounted for a wrong-side sideswiping of two cars in Morrow County Tuesday night at 8:30. State patrolmen from the Marion post were called to investigate an accident on U. S. Route 42, about three miles north of Mt. Gilead.

Upon arrival, they found a car driven by Thomas M. Fisher, 17, of Cardington had skidded off the left side of the highway and was sideswiped by a car driven by Vernon A. Weaver, 35, of Canton.

Damage was done to the right sides of both cars, instead of the left, as in the normal sideswiping accident. Fisher was cited to appear before Juvenile Judge John McMillen of Morrow County to answer a charge of driving left of center of the highway. Moderate damage was done to both cars.

OFFICIALS TO MEET

The last regularly scheduled meeting of the year will be held tonight by the Mid-Ohio Officials Association, a spokesman for the group reported today. The meeting is scheduled at 7:30 in Room 205 at the YMCA. A speaker from the National Officials' Association will discuss basketball rules.

Accident Victim Still Critical at Springfield

The condition of Mrs. Zula McCullough of 273 Clover Ave., injured seriously on Tuesday near Urbana in an automobile accident which took the life of another woman, was listed as "not good" today at Springfield City Hospital.

Funeral services for Mrs. Madeline A. Hastings of 201 Blaine Ave., driver of the car in which Mrs. McCullough was riding, will be conducted Friday morning in St. Mary Catholic Church here. Their car skidded into the path of a truck as they were enroute to Dayton.

Services Begin Sunday

Brothers Will Conduct Spiritual Crusade Here

Evangelists opening a Spiritual Victory Crusade in Marion on Sunday under auspices of the Marion County Ministerial Association are Rev. Charles Forbes Taylor and Rev. Laurie Forbes Taylor, known as the Taylor Brothers, who return to Marion for a second union effort of preaching and special music in a new version of a similar campaign they conducted here in 1951.

The services will be held nightly in Epworth Methodist Church.

Ordained into the ministry at the age of 18, Rev. "Charlie" Taylor has preached an average of 350 sermons a year since he was 13. During the course of each crusade campaign he shows colored moving pictures which he has taken in his travels in various parts of the world.

HE IS THE author of a number of books and has conducted more than 300 Spiritual Victory Crusades of more than 4,000 churches in nearly every state in this country and in five provinces of Canada as well as in England, and Wales.

Rev. Laurie Taylor is the pianist-composer member of the team.

They are members of a family of 11 which includes five minister sons of a former English evangelist, Rev. Charles Taylor.

The elder Taylor many years ago toured the continent of Europe with a "Gospel wagon" selling more than 150,000 copies of the New Testament for two cents a copy. Charles, at the age of 9, stopped traveling with his father and began conducting Sunday School himself .On the final night of the crusade here, Jan. 25, he will tell his life story illustrated with color moving pictures of England.

—:—

TEAMED WITH his musician brother more than 30 years, he is his own song leader for the meetings and sings solos as part of his sermons. He holds degree of doctor of divinity and doctor of law from two Texas universities. His travelog pictures include trips in Europe, Alaska, the Holy Land, South America and places of interest in this country.

Rev. Laurie Taylor, recognized as a concert pianist, plays 15 minutes of classical music each night besides variations of famous hymns. He plays a complete recital one night each week preceding the sermon, and his instrument is his own concert Steinway piano which he ships from place to place for the crusade meetings. An ordained minister, he preaches each Sunday morning at one of the churches co-operating in the campaign.

THE TAYLORS bring with them also their own picture screen, their own projector, and their own public address system. Use will be made also of the new Taylor hymnbook. There will be new moving pictures, and a new sermon series "applicable to the needs of people in 1954."

Services will begin Sunday at 7:30 p.m. and continue each night except Saturday through Monday night, Jan. 25. The Taylors will come to Marion by air route from California where they have been spending the Christmas holidays with their families.

The sun is calculated to be about 330,000 times the mass of the earth.

Court Order Separates Father From His Child

MIAMI, Ariz. (AP)—Federico Alonzo Gutierrez and his 6-year-old daughter Herlinda have two more days together.

Then Gutierez will be deported to his native Mexico for illegal entry nine years ago.

Herlinda, who was born in Wyoming, must stay in the United States under a court order issued in that state. She'll be cared for here, U. S. immigration officials said.

Her father can apply for re-entry on a legal basis in a year.

CLEVELAND (AP)—Coffee prices are expected to rise here, partly because of crop shortages in Brazil. One procery chain already has jumped prices three and four cents a pound on bag coffee.

Lt. Governor Will Seek Second Term

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Lt. Gov. John W. Brown of Medina announced yesterday for re-election. The 40-year-old Republican said earlier he would run for governor unless State Auditor James A. Rhodes announced for that post.

Brown's announcement bolstered reports that Rhodes would seek the Republican nomination to oppose Democrat Gov. Frank J. Lausche, who is seeking a fifth two-year term.

Brown said in the past quarter of a century Ohio voters have, with "two or three exceptions," elected a predominately Republican General Assembly. He said the presiding officer of the Senate should be of the same party as the majority of its members.

His declaration came a day after GOP state officeholders met with Republican chairman Ray C. Bliss of Akron.

Rhodes has said he would become a gubernatorial candidate if assured the nomination without party opposition.

Arrive in Nick of Time

DENVER (AP)—Police cruising in a Denver residential area saw James Finnegan, 46, rummaging through the trunk of a car. He had a pair of rubber boots and some overshoes in his hand.

At 12:40 a.m. today the inhalator crew went to the residence of Mrs. Pearl Aldrich of 457 Bartram Ave. where they used the inhalator on her for 50 minutes successfully. They reported she was recovering from a heart attack when they completed the treatment.

At 7:21 a.m. this morning, central station firemen were called to the H. G. Collins residence at 253 Blaine Ave. when a chimney burned out. There was no loss reported.

Other fire scare was at 12:03 a.m. today at the residence of Paul Cochrane of 683 Bennett St. when he discovered smoke coming from a clothes dryer and thought it on fire. Central station firemen said lint in the dryer caused the smoke but there was no fire and no loss.

Irish Top Kenton 64-58 in Best Showing of Season

St. Mary Connects on 23 Of 55 Attempts From Field

By JOHN SHORT

St. Mary's basketball squad turned in its top performance of the season last night at the Coliseum in dumping George Keel's Kenton Wildcats 64-58.

The Irish clicked on a highly-commendable 42 per cent of their shots. Twenty-three of 55 attempts were good from the field. An additional 18 points were registered out of 35 free throws for a 51 per cent mark from the charity line.

Visitors Hit 33 Per Cent

The visitors finished with a respectable 33 per cent shooting average. They hit on 23 of 69 attempts from the field. From the foul line, the Cats scored 12 of 17 for an average of slightly over 70 per cent.

Kenton tried 14 more shots from the field than the Irish and there in lies the story of the St. Mary win. The Irish throughout the final three periods held complete control of the Kenton board and Roger Micheli and Mike Anderson cleaned the Marion boards.

Micheli turned in his top performance with 29 markers. Displaying a new-found confidence, Micheli took over the job as the Irish's top point maker. After a slow start in the first two periods, in which he scored eight points, he broke loose in the third with 11 and added 10 in the final period as the Kenton defense faltered. Anderson kept the Kenton squad from setting its defense for Micheli. He dumped in 19 points and Butch Merchant added 8.

J. R. Hickle topped the Kenton attack with 18 points while Tom Waddle popped in 14, all coming on set shots from the outside. Highland collected 10.

Irish Score First

Micheli opened the scoring parade after four seconds has passed when he drove in for a layup. From there the Irish raced to a nine-point lead and led at the quarter mark by an 18-13 count. The losers outscored St. Mary in the second period, and at the half trailed only 30-27.

At the start of the third period, Micheli hit from the foul line and added a set shot from the corner. Anderson added a long set shot and Merchant scored on a layup to boost the Irish into a 37-29 lead. Keel's Jim Hogan left the game via the foul line with four minutes left in the third period.

Kenton shifted to a tight man to man defense in an effort to check the Irish attack but the speedy Johnny Messenger, Jerry Ballenger and Merchant kept them off balance. The pressing attack did, however, slow the Irish momentarily and Kenton moved to within three points, 50-47, with four minutes left.

Just when the Cats were threatening to move back into the game, a defensive lapse for a period of about 15 seconds allowed the Irish to spurt into a lead safe enough to ice the verdict. Two Kenton guards became confused in a scramble at the side of the court and before they managed to get back into the game, Micheli and Anderson had broken loose for easy layins to shove St. Mary ahead 57-51. Micheli batted in a pair of rebounds to build the cushion to 61-51 and the Cats were out of business.

A tight defense out front thrown up by Ray Robbins' charges was a big factor in the victory. The three front men kept the middle closed and Kenton's fast-breaking aces were never able to break through. They were forced to resort to long shots and those which were missed were eaten up by the Irish rebounders.

Reserves Win

Dan McGinnis' reserve squad notched a 25-17 win in the reserve battle. Kenton forged ahead 6-3 in the first period but the junior Irish gained a 15-12 halftime advantage and led 22-17 at the start of the final stanza. Kenton was unable to score during the fourth frame.

Dick Micheli carried the load for the winners by notching 10 points. Dick Mounts chipped in with nine. Dave Kraft netted four and Gary Howman scored the other two. Ronnie West was high for the Kenton futures with five.

In a junior high school game, Taft dropped the St. Mary seventh, eighth and ninth graders by a 34-15 count. Wilson topped the winners' scoring with 14 points.

The Irish will resume action Friday night at Richwood and Saturday will play at Cardington in a pair of Mid-Ohio League games.

SHORT SPORTS

By John Short

Players around the International Hockey League had a lot of conversation pieces after last week's games and some are still being buzzed about.

SHORT

Many of the discussions centered around the two brawls between Marion's Barons and the Toledo Mercs. Others were on Cincinnati's four victories to solidify the Mohawks' hold on the league lead.

But the topic most were kicking around was the 4-3 overtime win notched by hapless Milwaukee over eighth-place Fort Wayne. The Chiefs managed the win after absorbing 13 straight losses. They had failed to win since Nov. 28.

Biggest news out of that game was the return to action of Coach Lou Trudell. Lou had been off the ice for three years but came off the bench in an effort to inject a little life into the Milwaukee skaters. He batted in the winning goal in an overtime period.

A total of 6,558 watched the game at the Fort Wayne rink. At the same time, a game at Cincinnati one week before between Cincinnati and Toledo, No. 1 and No. 2 teams in the league, drew only 2,535.

Attendance at Coliseum engagements is expected to pick up through the remainder of the campaign. With Christmas shopping out of the way fans are getting back into the swing of the game and attendance last Sunday was up slightly. One other big boost to the local gate is the spreading interest being shown in the game by fans from outside Marion and immediate vicinity.

A check of the automobiles at a Sunday game shows nearly one out of every three cars bearing out-of-town license plates. Columbus and Mansfield residents are the most numerous with many more fans making the trip from Newark.

NCAA Mentors Ignore Sideline Coaching Rule

CINCINNATI (AP) — One suggestion for a change in the football code which didn't get very far before the American Football Coaches Assn. Rules Committee yesterday at the NCAA convention was by Charles (Chuck) Mather.

Chuck is coach at Massillon High School's six-time Ohio State champions. His teams there have won 57 of 60, and averaged about 20,000 in attendance.

Mather offered a resolution urging that the rule which bans coaching from the sideline be elliminated from the code

Chairman Lou Little of Columbia, glanced around the room, asked if any of the coaches desired to discuss the point, and was greeted by a heavy silence.

Mather finally got up and drawled:

"Okay, let's forget it. I guess I'm the only one who coaches from the sidelines."

Mather said later he thought the sideline coaching rule probably was the most widely abused and least punished regulation in the book.

"I think we should be honest about it and eliminate the rule," Chuck said. "Practically everyone violates it, but no one will admit it.

"If a coach is to be blamed for every decision on the field, I believe he should have a hand in making those decisions. There are times when a captain's decision to accept or decline a penalty can lose a ball game and jeopardize a coach's job. If the coach were allowed to signal, legally, from the sidelines, then he'd be making his own decisions upon which his future rests."

Giambra Favorite In Television Fight

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP)—Bobby Dykes never has lost a fight in Miami Beach Auditorium but the odds are 2-1 he'll lose tonight when he meets Joey Giambra, Buffalo, N. Y., middleweight in a 10-round engagement.

Dykes, 25-year-old native of San Antonio, Tex., who now calls Miami his home, scored two knockouts since Maston O'Neal, Miami contractor, took over as his manager. He said he liked the role of underdog.

"It sort of takes the pressure off you when you know the other guy is the favorite," he explained.

Attack Fatal

Rabbit Maranville, 61, Dies, Was With 'Miracle' Braves

NEW YORK (AP)—Walter (Rabbit) Maranville, rated as one of the greatest fielding shortstops in baseball history and a member of the 1914 "miracle" Boston Braves, died last night of a heart attack. He was 61.

Death came to the little man, who started his major league career with the Boston Braves in 1912 and wound up with the same club in 1935, at his home in the Woodside section of New York.

Burial will be at Springfield, Mass. He is survived by his widow Helene and a daughter, Mrs. Peter McGuinis of Rochester, N.Y.

In between the times he played with the Braves, he was a member of the Pittsburgh Pirates, Chicago Cubs, Brooklyn Dodgers and the St. Louis Cardinals. And he managed the Cubs briefly during the 1925 season and piloted the Braves, also for a short period, in 1929.

After breaking a leg in a 1934 spring exhibition game with the New York Yankees, the Rabbit wound up his major league career the following year. But before bowing out of baseball altogether he took a fling at managing Elmira, N. Y., and Montreal in the International League.

In late years, he had been active in baseball as director of the New York Journal - American's sandlot program.

Maranville and Mates Appeared in Game Here

Maranville appeared in Marion once during the early part of his major league career when the Braves played an exhibition game at Lincoln Park.

The Braves and Maranville faced a team managed by Billy Fetter and sponsored by The Star. Fetter recalls that in that game he played shortstop while W. W (Jack) Jackman of near Green Camp pitched. Among other Marion men who saw action in that game were Bud Lawson, Joe Conroy, Ross Colegrove, Perry and Joe Rowland and the late Nick Lawrence.

Elm Valley Wards Off Rally for Win

ASHLEY — Elm Valley put down a fourth quarter rally last night to defeat Fredericktown 54-43.

The Aces led all the way, but in the final period Fredericktown staged a rally which carried it to within four points of the leaders before they could put out the fire.

John Humes was high man for the winners, accounting for 28 points, while Ed Vanausdale added 14. Sycamore with 10 was the only Fredericktown player who hit for a double-figure. Fredericktown walked off with the jayvee game, 36-23.

Elm Valley goes into action next when it plays host to Olentangy Friday night.

IBC President Eyes Title Bout For Miami, Fla.

NEW YORK (AP)—Jim Norris will try again today to talk Manager Al Weill into a Feb. 24 heavyweight title defense by Rocky Marciano at Miami Stadium.

Although Weill says there is a "very slim chance" of the champ fighting in Miami, the president of the International Boxing Club still hopes to promote a title fight this winter.

After talking to Weill yesterday for two hours, Norris said he "got the impression that Al is not too anxious to box until June." But Norris planned to remain in town for a week in an effort to make a match.

Marciano already is at Grossinger's where he trains for his fights. At present he is "resting" but Allie Colombo, his co-trainer, is due Sunday. According to reports, Marciano plans to stay for at least a month. Sparring partners have been alerted.

Waldo Falls 55-41 Before Chesterville

Waldo dropped a 55-41 decision to a high-flying Chesterville quintet last night on the Morrow County floor. The winners went ahead 13-6 in the first period and Waldo trailed the rest of the way. At the half, the Marion Countians were on the short end of a 24-15 count.

Waldo's scoring was divided mainly among three players. Rex Henry popped in 13, Don Yake had 12 and Roy Klingel had 10. Nauman with 15 and James with 11 paced the losers.

The Waldo reserves rolled to a 36-22 win in the opener, Morral, leader in the Marion County League, will be at Waldo for a Friday night tussle.

Coaches Retain Platoon Rules; Seek Easement

By FRITZ HOWELL

CINCINNATI (AP)—America's college football coaches, saddled with the one-platoon system for at least another season, want substitution rules relaxed to protect their players.

But the usually militant mentors appear slightly subdued. Their 8-to-1 poll in favor of two platoons was ignored a year ago when the National Collegiate Athletic Assn. rules committee surprised everyone by instituting the current "both way" style of play.

The Rules Committee of the American Football Coaches Assn., which annually recommends several changes for the NCAA to consider, offered only two yesterday

One would allow a player to reenter the game once each period, and eliminate the four-minute sessions at the end of the second and fourth periods.

The other would penalize on the ensuing kickoff any defensive team guilty of an infraction during an unsuccessful try for extra point.

Lou Little of Columbia, chairman of the coaches rule group, in chatting about the proposed change, reiterated:

"Two-platoon football is the better football."

He said 319 coaches in his current poll voted to retain the one-platoon system, 189 favored the 1952 rules, and 57 wanted the present regulations liberalized to some extent.

"It just shows how our thinking has changed," he said. "A year ago the coaches were 8 to 1 in favor of two platoons. Now only 189 want that style, and 576 want the single platoon plan or some liberalization of it."

Some coaches said they voted as they did because they felt there was no chance for return of the two-platoon setup, and they wanted to salvage what they could by getting more liberal substitutions.

But little said he didn't believe that was true in the majority of cases. "I think the coaches were sincere in their voting," he said.

Little disclosed his poll also showed 108 colleges reported an increase in injuries, 69 a decrease, and 95 no change under the single-platoon system.

On the proposed substitution rule, to be considered Jan. 11 in Sarasota, Fla., by the NCAA committee, Little said:

"We feel a boy should be allowed to re-enter the game once in each period. Under the current rule coaches are hesitant about removing a star player because of a minor injury, but they'd act quickly if they knew they could get the boy back into the game after checking his condition.

"The rule would help smaller squads, for they could rest individual players."

The 48th annual convention of the NCAA and several allied groups was ready to swing into action today.

Marion at Full Strength For Fort Wayne Clash

Marion's Barons are on home ice tonight, seeking their initial win of the International Hockey League season over the visiting Ft. Wayne Komets.

The visitors thus far are the only IHL club yet to be beaten by the local skaters. In all four meetings, Ft. Wayne has walked off the ice with four one-point decisions.

Last meeting Dec. 8 on the Ft. Wayne ice, the Komets skated to a 3-2 win. Prior to that, Ft. Wayne had taken two 3-2 decisions and a 5-4 win from the Barons.

Marion will be at full strength for tonight's game, the face off of which is at 8:30 p.m. Phil Vitale and Kenny Schultz, who were handed one-game suspensions this week by the IHL office for penalties received in squabbles in Sunday's Toledo game here, will be suited up for tonight's game. However, both will miss Thursday nights' game in Milwaukee against the last-place Chiefs. It was incorrectly reported in Tuesday's Star that both would miss tonight's game.

Marion, which slumped to sixth spot in the league as both Troy and Grand Rapids won last night, will be out to regain its former spot, tied with Troy for fourth position and a single point in front of Grand Rapids. Troy downed the league-leading Cincinnati Mohawks 5-2 to move into fourth with 38 points while Grand Rapids defeated hapless Milwaukee 6-2 to advance into fifth with 37 points. In the remaining IHL tilt, Johnstown edged Louisville 4-3 to take over second spot in the league with 40 points, one ahead of third place Toledo but seven away from first. Marion's 36 points leaves it two ahead of seventh place Louisville, and four in front of eighth-place Ft. Wayne.

The visitors bring the fourth best defensive mark into Marion, ever, the Komets stand only having allowed but 113 goals. However, Marion's 128 goals scored and 107 goals allowed, is fourth in offense and third in defense.

Only other IHL action tonight sends Grand Rapids to Toledo. Marion travels to Milwaukee Thursday night and to Cincinnati Saturday night before the Mohawks and Barons come back here for a clash at the Coliseum Sunday afternoon.

Final Obstacle Cleared in Bid For Franchise

RICHMOND, Va. (AP) — Only a mere formality remains to make Richmond a full-fledged member of the Class AAA International League.

The city had four of its citizens —two of whom mortgaged their homes to raise funds—to thank for putting it in business in triple-A baseball. None of the four-member syndicate was identified.

The syndicate came up with $200,000 last night shortly before the International League's midnight deadline for the city to find a park that would meet triple-A specifications. Parker Field will be converted to seat between 10,000 and 12,000 spectators.

Frank Shaughnessy, president of the league, said in Montreal last night that Richmond's entrance is a mere formality and described the work of Richmond's mayor, Dr. Ed Haddock, as "wonderful" and "tremendous" in driving for the franchise.

The league probably will meet in New York next week to induct Richmond, since 1932 a member of the Class B Piedmont League. At the same time, Havana, Cuba, a member of the Class B Florida-International League, will be admitted.

Western Kentucky Bidding For National Cage Laurels

NEW YORK (AP)—Western Kentucky today held the longest winning streak among major college basketball teams—13 games without a defeat—and it appears that the Hilltoppers are going to make another serious bid for national honors.

Ed Diddle's outfit recorded an easy triumph over Middle Tennessee, 98-67, at Bowling Green, Ky. last night to move one-up over idle Duquesne, which has won 12 in a row.

Western Kentucky has only one more game this week, against Murray State on Saturday, and that should not be too tough an assignment for the fifth-ranked team in the weekly Associated Press poll. However, next Monday, the Hilltoppers face both Dayton and Eastern Kentucky State, either of which could snap the skein.

Oklahoma City, No. 9, was the only other team in the top 10 in the country to get into action and it coasted to a 56-39 triumph over Oklahoma Baptist to runs its record to 9-1.

George Washington and Niagara, tied for 12th spot, both won. The former kept its record unblemished by crushing Clemson 95-55 for its seventh straight. Niagara defeated Buffalo 84-45 in the feature of a Buffalo double-header.

Larry Costello of Niagara and Jim Horne of Buffalo each hit the 1,000-point mark. Costello, who has been campaigning less than three years, now has an even 1,000 points, while Horne, who scored 23 markers for the losing cause, has 1,009.

North Carolina State, one of the South's stronger teams and No. 20 in the poll, whipped Virginia Tech 91-62.

The last of the 18 tournaments that have been running at one time or another since the Christmas holidays wound up when Mississippi Southern turned back North Texas State 87-70 in the final of the Senior Bowl event.

There were two upsets of minor proportions. Oregon was a surprisingly easy 81-63 victor over Idaho, one of the preseason favorites for the Northern Division Pacific Coast Conference crown. In the other reversal, Michigan State never was headed after the opening seconds and drove to a 78-63 victory over Kansas State, a team that was rated one of the main threats for the Big Seven title.

In conference races, which are just gathering momentum, Maryland halted Virginia 70-64 in the Atlantic Coast Conference; Cornell turned back Columbia 81-73 in Ivy league; and in opening Southwest Conference games, Baylor edged Texas A&M 47-45, and Texas vanquished Texas Christian 54-47.

At Madison Square Garden, a small crowd of about 5,000 turned out to watch Seton Hall beat Wake Forest 89-78 and St. John's breeze past West Virginia 87-74.

South Passing Figured Tops In Senior Bowl

MOBILE, Ala. (AP) — The Senior Bowl football game here Saturday looms as a match between the passing wizardry of Steve Owen's South squad and the running attack of Paul Brown's northerners.

The accurate right arms of passers Zeke Bratkowski of Georgia, Vince Dooley of Auburn and Jim Gray of East Texas Teachers have established the South as a 7-point favorite. The trio will aim their tosses principally at Dreher Gaskin of Clemson and Dave Davis of Georgia Tech, 6-feet-4 ends.

In the North camp, the accent has been on running, with Brown trying out two potent combinations.

One has Northwestern's Dick Thomas at quarterback, Michigan State's Billy Wells and Villanova's Gene Filipski at the halfback positions, and West Virginia's Tom Allman at fullback.

In the other, Fordham's Roger Franz directs UCLA's Bill Stits and Wisconsin's Harland Carl at halfback an dMaryland's Ralph Felton at fullback.

No matter what type attacks are used however, each team will have plenty of up-front talent to rely upon.

In addition to Don Dohoney of Michigan State, All-America linemen for the North are tackle George Jacoby of Ohio State and center Jerry Hilgenberg of Iowa. The south's All-America linemen are two guards, Crawford Mims of Mississippi and J. D. Roberts of Oklahoma.

By John Crosby

His Guggle to His Zatch

James Thurber's "Thirteen Clocks" is a fairy story—well, sort of a parody on all fairy stories—that come out in 1950 just in time for the Christmas trade. It's a handsome little book (Simon & Schuster) with large print and amusing colored drawings and, I guess, you can still find it in the book stores.

J. CROSBY

It's an odd, very readable book which alternates between pure Thurber (which is to say, very good stuff) and malarkey (which is to say, not so very good stuff.) To my knowledge it's been twice on television—the first time on Faye Emerson's "Wonderful Town" as a ballet with Miss Emerson narrating off camera, the second time as a musical just last week on Motorola TV Hour (ABC) TV 9:30 p.m. EST Tuesdays).

THE MOTOROLA "Thirteen Clocks" was entirely enchanting in just about every way a show can be. It was—to start out with—an eyefilling production full of medieval, fairy-story wonder-moats and dungeons and keeps and thick forests. The cast was just short of sensational.

The adaptation of John Grilly and Fred Sadoff wrung the best of the humor and charm and shrewdness out of the book and very skillfully avoided the more pedestrian passages.

The music by Mark Bucci (with lyrics by Bucci and Thurber) is not anything I've been humming ever since, but it was very pretty and appropriate.

In short, this production is much too good to be lost on a single showing and I devoutly hope they'll do the whole thing all over again some day, possibly on color television.

"THE THIRTEEN CLOCKS" is set in a fairly conventional fairy story framework but one with a wicked glint of humor in its eye. There is a villainous Duke played with almost too much vehemence by Basil Rathbone. "We all have our faults," says the Duke, "and mine is wickedness."

There is Princess Saralinda whose "eyes are candles burning in a shrine," whose "fingers bloom upon her breast like flowers." (Roberta Peters, who played Saralinda, didn't quite come up to Mr. Thurber's specifications but she was very photogenic, indeed.)

In order to keep Saralinda for himself, the Duke sets her suitors impossible tasks. They are required, for example, to slay the Thorny Boar of Bornythorn—but there is no Thorny Boar of Bornythorn which, as someone points out, makes it hard. When the suitors fail, the Duke slits them from their guggle to their zatch and feeds them to his geese.

WELL, SIR, a handsome prince (disguised as a minstrel, of course, and very well played by John Raitt) shows up to claim the Princess' hand, which is the only warm hand in the castle. He is assisted in his particular impossible tasks by a Golux who may require some explanation. The Golux, the only one in the world, is the son of a witch who had hoped to grow up and do a lot of evil but who had saved the life of a spider once and was doomed to do good all his days.

As played by Sir Cedric Hardwicke, the Golux was a pure delight. Offhand, I can't think of anyone except Sir Cedric who could carry off this nonsense with such charm and insouciance and complete authority. He is a very fine actor indeed, and I'm happy that the television people are finally discovering it.

ONE OF THE PLEASANT Thurberian twists I rather like concerns Hagga, a remarkable lady who cries, not tears, but jewels. Since the Prince and the Golux are in quest of 1,000 jewels, they try to get this lady to weep some jewels for them. But neither jokes nor sad stories will move the lady. Then, quite unexpectedly, she starts telling a story of her own and gets to laughing so hard at her own joke that she spews jeweled tears all over the place.

I laughed till I very nearly split from my guggle to my zatch.

'Starved Look' To Be Featured By New Clothes

NEW YORK (UP)—The year 1954 will be the one of "the amaciated look" for the American woman.

But looks are deceiving. A woman needn't rush to the nearest diet foods counter. Wily designers say they plan to make a woman look sleek and bulgeless, without too much figure alteration, by the cut of the clothes.

Clothes will be slinkier than they've been since the 1920's, but, unlike the flapper era, there'll be plenty of bosom in 1954.

"Clothes will have that all-in-one suppleness," said a spokesman for the 34 designers of the New York Dress Institute couture group. "The princess silhouette will be predominant. Bosoms will be high, the torso long, the waistline almost nothing.

"It'll be the emaciated look, without the starvation which goes with it."

For those who admit to a few extra pounds, the corset and brassiere industry promises "better figure molding" with lighter-weight materials and more elastic.

Shoe manufacturers say 1954 heels will be higher.

"Heels will be very, very high and almost needle-like in shape," said one source. "A woman will have to develop a whole new gait."

Hats will continue to be small, and the Millinery Fashion Bureau, representing the bulk of the industry, said they will be worn at a forward pitch.

"And there'll be plenty of trimming," the bureau added. "With tight skirts so popular, some women will have to draw attention away from the hipline."

Hair will continue short and less tousled than the 1953 versions of the Italian boy cut. Matter of fact, some hair stylists say this casual cut is as out-moded as the rats and buns of grandma's day.

Several other designers will arrange hair in smooth, almost cap-like waves. Hairdressers generally promise flat arrangements at the top of the head, with bulk at each side.

In makeup, the year promises to be one in which women aim to look like nature made them, except for eyebrows.

"Eyebrows will be marked," said one source.

Makeup color will stress the rosy tones rather than the oranges.

"Skins will have a mat finish," said a makeup expert." . . .closer to the southern belle than to the water nymph."

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (UP) — Five-year-old Bob Yates couldn't be sure whether it was a man or woman who had telephoned his father, "I couldn't see their clothes," he explained.

N.Y. Stock Quotations

NEW YORK (AP)—Barely steady prices were maintained today in the stock market.

Changes in prices at the most ran into the major fractions infrequently, and many leaders remained unchanged for long periods.

The trading pace was moderate at a rate somewhat less than yesterday's 1,520,000 shares.

Much of the irregularity today, brokers felt, was due to an attitude of caution on the eve of President Eisenhower's State of the Union message to be delivered tomorrow noon. That same sort of attitude was adopted Monday in the early part of the session when Wall Street remained in doubt as to what the President intended to say.

Steels were a little laggard today while the motors leaned to the firm side and the railroads were mixed.

Among higher stocks were Studebaker, Distillers Corp., Consolidated Edison, and Sinclair Oil. Lower were Bethlehem Steel, American Woolen, American Can, and Southern Railway.

Church-State Issue Revived In Cincinnati

Baptist Church May Appeal Order To Take Back Ousted Member

CINCINNATI (AP)—A Baptist minister said today his church probably would appeal a court decision which ordered the congregation to re-extend its "hand of fellowship" to an expelled member.

The issueu pinpoints the relationship of church and state," said the Rev. John Rawlings, pastor of the nearby Lockland Baptist Church.

Judge John M. Renner of the Common Pleas Court ordered the church yesterday to restore the hand of fellowship and full membership to Mrs. Mary Randolph, 51-year-old Cincinnati housewife.

She was expelled from the church Aug. 7, 1952, for alleged criticism voiced against church officials, voting against the proposals of trustees and failing to attend church services.

Extension of the hand of fellowship is a symbolic term used by Baptists in accepting persons into church membership.

Church members testified Mrs. Randolph missed two Sundays in Sunday school in the spring of 1952. She told them, they said, she had attended another church and would not return so long as the Rev. Mr. Rawlings remained at Lockland.

Judge Renner said her actions did not constitute "gross sin and failure to repent" nor "conduct unbecoming a Christian." These were the grounds for expelling a member from the church under its old and new constitutions.

"I feel as humble as I did the day I walked into court," Mrs. Randolph said in rejoicing over the decision.

The Rev. Mr. Rawlings immediately protested the court's ruling as state interference with religious affairs.

"I believe the court has infringed and usurped the authority of the local church in determining the decision that should be made a matter in membership discipline," he said.

The minister said the whole congregation would have to decide on a court appeal, but he believed one would be made.

"This involves every Baptist church," he said. "If a court can demand that a belligerent member be taken into membership, we would hardly know where to stand."

If the civil court can decide the issue, then it has usurped religious authority, he asserted.

Judge Renner, in his ruling, said Mrs. Randolph was not given a proper notice of the exulsion hearing.

INJURIES FATAL

New Wave of 'Red Tide' Hits Florida West Coast

PALMETTO, Fla. (AP)—New outbreaks of "red tide" have killed thousands of fish, mostly mullet, in rivers and bays along the Florida west coast from Tampa to Little Marco, it was reported today.

The red tide, bymodinium brevis, is a microscopic organism which poisons fish and turns the water a reddish brown.

New Tree Swing Hard On Youngster, Trousers

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP)—Ronnie Ellmers, 9, swung high in his new tree swing and snagged his pants on a barbed wire fence.

Back with another pair on, he swung another way—and promptly ripped his other pants.

Again he tried. He sailed far higher than before, but fell out and broke his arm.

NEW GUILD HEAD

CLEVELAND (AP)—J. K. Schmidt, state editor of the Cleveland Plain Dealer since 1929, is the new president of the Cleveland Newspaper Guild. Schmidt, a former president of The Associated Press Society of Ohio, was elected last night to succeed Howard Beaufait, a reporter for the Cleveland News.

Repentant Robber Forces Companion To Surrender Loot

LINCOLN, Neb. (AP)—Police said a repentant youth forced his companion at gunpoint to drive to police headquarters after a $150 filling station robbery so the two could surrender.

The youths, Rodger W. Brinton, 20, Lincoln, and Edward J. Crable Jr., 19, Emerald, Neb., pleaded guilty in Lancaster County District Court yesterday.

The two were taken into custody in front of police headquarters Sunday night. Police said Brinton had turned a gun on Crable and demanded they turn themselves in.

Sentence was deferred while a probation officer investigated.

Workmen Not Aware Legislature in Session

PROVIDENCE, R. I. (AP)—Gov. Dennis J. Roberts was reading his annual message to the opening session of the 1954 State Legislature yesterday when he was interrupted by the clamor of hammers on chisels.

State House Supt. Robert T. Schofield was summoned to investigate. He found two men chipping tile on the roof of the House chamber. They said they didn't know the Legislature was back in session.
